MARION CHAPTER 18

Continuing its program of making chapter meetings both varied and interesting, Marion Chapter 18 climaxed its most recent meeting on October 9, 1950 with a flower show. A calla lily, Port Orford cedar, rhododendron, and gladiola bulbs, together with hand woven towels were contributed by various members of the chapter as door prizes. The lucky winners of plants were Gertrude Green, Erma Taylor, Louise Purvis and Paul Griebenow. The hand woven towels were won by Walter Welch and D. J. McLellan.

Enthusiastic participation of all members insured the complete success of the flower show. Ribbons for first and second place in several different classifications and arrangements of flowers were awarded to Moody Benner, Paul Griebenow, Lillian Hartwig and Lura Crabtree.

Sincere appreciation to Frank Hutchinson who makes a very conscientious effort to produce programs which will encourage every member to attend chapter meetings. Through his
