

OREGON TRAIL CHAPTER 35

Our first meeting, after the summer months, was held Sept. 8 with 38 members and visitors attending. We have a lot of fun keeping a president, as two of them have gone elsewhere, but we have Elma Nelson as our president now. Fred Borland has gone to Adak to work. Jack McGaughey was called back into service with the marines and is now stationed in Korea. Paul Richhart is in Guam.

We regret to inform you Mrs. Hazel Wright passed away August 23. Her memory will live forever among those who knew her.

ROSE CITY CHAPTER 5

Our elections for the coming term are over and Mr. Stream, chairman of the nominating committee, announces that Paul Forcum is our next president, Herman Baxter our vice president and Dave Lang is re-elected secretary-treasurer. Joe Skelton was chosen as our delegate to the general council meeting.

The November meeting will be our annual Inaugural Dinner "Clambake."

Paul Forcum's wife has suffered a siege in the hospital but is now at home recuperating.

Last Monday, October 9, a joint meeting of the thirteen Portland chapters was held at the Eagles hall. Our president, Mr. Chidsey, opened the meeting by presenting the needs of our members. Mr. Stewart introduced the candidates from the legislature who were present, Lawson McCall, Governor McKay's representative, and Austin Flegel, Jack Norton, our district director, and P. M. Brandt, laws and legislation also spoke. Austin Thompson was chairman. Many promises and frank statements were made by the candidates.

ASTORIA CHAPTER 8

Mrs. Dorothy Simcox, office girl at Astoria, is back to work after being away a month due to illness.

Mrs. Kenneth Loter who has been critically ill is reported to be improving now.

The four nimrods from Astoria who went to eastern Oregon to bag a buck, namely, Roy Boldt, Kenneth Loter, Olaf Fransen and Clarence Asher, are enjoying bacon but no venison. We also notice that Jesse D. Hathaway, bridge foreman, who went to eastern Oregon, is also singing pretty low.

It was reported that R. M. Smith bagged a nice buck in the Tillamook district soon after the season opened.

Fred Stult's extra gang is working in John Thomas' section removing slides.
