VETERANS AFFAIRS CHAPTER No. 50

Veterans Affairs Chapter No. 50, OSEA, named E. Guy Cook President for 1951 at its annual election in January. Mr. Cook, last year's Vice-president, and loan officer in the Salem office of the Department of Veterans Affairs, succeeds Lester L. Moser, Portland office's property appraiser.

Florence Neavoll, Salem office stenographer, was elected Secretary-Treasurer succeeding Marilyn Ransdell, Portland office stenographer. Vice-president this year will be Joseph Yazzolino, Portland loan officer.

Mr. Moser, outgoing president, expressed his appreciation to Gene Schmidt, headquarters staff of OSEA, and to Jack Norton, District No. 1 Director, for their assistance last March in organizing the Veterans Chapter.

The Chapter has grown to a membership of 48 in less than a years time, now representing 65 per cent of the employees in the Salem and Portland offices of the Veterans Department. Our Chapter was among the first to qualify for the new OSEA group life insurance plan.

Leonard J. Popma, Jr., collections officer in the Salem office, was named 1951 membership Director for OSEA at the November meeting of the General Council.

Safety Isn't Difficult

A small child turned loose in his own neighborhood can usually find his way home from memory; however, if the same child were given a map of his community, he would be at a loss as to how to orient himself.

Just as the youngster doesn't need to know the intricacies of map reading in order to find his way home, likewise degrees from technical schools are not required in order to realize
