

OCE CHAPTER No. 43

A Pot Luck supper on Tuesday, February 6th, was the main attraction of the regular monthly meeting of O.C.E. Chapter No. 43. Frank Smith, program chairman, and Mark Sayre were in charge of arrangements of this affair. A tempting array of main dishes, salads, and desserts called for well-filled plates — return trips for second and third helpings. Honorable mention goes to Chef Carl McMahon for his delicious banana cake. Mr. McMahon offers keen competition in the delicacy of cake baking — and a womens' field, too!

A short business session, with ratification of the two amendments to the OSEA constitution, and a free-choice song-fest, were the order of the evening.

WEBFOOT CHAPTER No. 49

The Webfoot Chapter is being feted —wined (well, in a manner of speaking), dined, and in general entertained in the royal fashion they would like to become accustomed to. At least, half of the chapter is; the other half is providing the entertainment. The reason? The recent membership drive.

To stimulate interest in the recent membership drive, two competing teams were formed. Mrs. Steddham
