

and Louie Jensen headed the competing teams. The winning stake is a pot luck dinner provided and served by the losing team. So, the next meeting will see the losing team hard at work, setting tables, washing dishes, and waiting on the victors, amid (no doubt) a great deal of razzing and general fun — even washing dishes can be fun — in a strictly social event.

The spirit of friendly competition with which this chapter went ahead with the membership drive, has done a great deal to inculcate a lively chapter spirit among new and old members, alike, which, it is hoped, will help us over some of the rough spots ahead.

That the drive was successful, from a practical as well as social standpoint, is evidenced by the following:

In June, 1950, when Eu-Lane and Webfoot chapters consolidated under the name of "Webfoot," the two amalgamated chapters had only 75 members. As of March 6, 1951, our membership totals 158 members.

We think we have something to crow about!
