

Queen candidates of first annual picnic, 1949.

the heels of your size 14 riding boots. This is a show that will top all shows. Lots of professional stuff. You'll be sprawling in the dust from laughter till your sides ache at the acts that you will see. It's hilarious, it's a riot, it's downright funny.

Ma will be the thrill of the day. Come out and watch her pull up her old kitchen apron and take off for a race between the chicken house and the barn for a prize. It will bowl you over.

Grab a few neighbors. Bring the kids, old folks, girl friend, boy friend, husband and wife. Bring them all. We want you all out to "Shampooy" to the "Western Roundup of OSEA." Come out and whoop it up.

These are just some of the plans which have been started for our big 3rd Annual Picnic. It is hoped that this event will be the largest get together ever attempted by the OSEA. Three thousand plus is the goal set for this year.

John R. Kelley, President of Wilamette Chapter 21, Public Utilities Commission, has been selected as General Chairman and Coordinator under Lyle Sacre, the District Director of District 2. Mr. Kelley has appointed four Assistant Coordinators as follows:

Larry Gooley, President, Chapter 20—Tables and grounds, park information, public address system, first aid.

Wayne Straw, Vice-President Chapter 21—Sports and contests, refreshments and beverages, tickets and attendance, invitations and letters.

Cliff Robinson, President, Chapter 23—Publicity and advertisement, cars and transportation, signs and posters, photography.

James Banks, Chapter 19—Stage and props, music and chorals, stunts and skits.

Ted Bamford—Director of finance.

Gene Schmidt— Director of prizes and awards.

For each of the designated categories under the Assistant Coordinators there will be appointed a Director and a Committee of three.

The "Western" theme will be characterized throughout the day and it is hoped that many in attendance will dress accordingly.

This is not going to cost you one "cow hide." You don't have to mortgage the old homestead to get out to this gala event. Just remember. Set it aside. Sunday, August 21, 1951. See you there, partner!
