

the life of the member, and arising out of the relationship between the member and the possessor of such interest, whether the relationship be one of affinity, consanguinity or debtor and creditor. It is not necessary that the insurable interest continue until the death of the member in order to qualify the beneficiary to receive such payments as may otherwise be due to him.

Rule No. 19

An inactive member is one who has terminated his regular employment with a participating employer and who has not withdrawn his net accumulations in the retirement fund. No employe-employer contributions on account of such inactive member shall be accepted by the board if he is re-employed in a temporary, casual or emergency position which does not normally require at least 600 hours per year of service.

Rule No. 20

Any increase in service or disability retirement benefits established by amendment to the retirement law shall apply to retired members as of the effective date of such amendment, unless otherwise specifically provided by law.

Rule No. 21

Any member who is 55 or older (police officers and firemen, age 50 or older; certified teachers, age 45 or older) may terminate employment of all participating employers and become eligible for reduced service benefits, including prior service pension, upon attaining age 60 (police officers and firemen, age 55; certified teach-
