

Chapter News

District No. 1

ROSE CITY CHAPTER 5 heard a report on OSEA's proposal to improve the PERS from Retirement Director Jerry Liebertz. Wage and Salary Analyst Everett B. Stiles also attended the meeting to speak on collective bargaining and salaries. Chapter members voted a $50 contribution to the OSEA scholarship fund.

PORTLAND CHAPTER 17 members voted a $25 contribution to the OSEA scholarship fund. Law and Legislation Director Harold W. Adams and Field Representative C.D. Johansen were guests at the February meeting. Adams discussed collective bargaining and Johansen outlined the collective bargaining petitioning process.

MERCURY CHAPTER 39 member Lillian Hoesley was presented with the Order of Pin award for enrolling 11 new members into OSEA. Field Representative C.D. Johansen attended the February meeting to discuss collective bargaining in state government.

OR-GA-CO CHAPTER 51 voted a $125 contribution to the OSEA scholarship fund. President Warren Aney appointed George Kernan, Ron Shay and Monty Montgomery to a committee for the purpose of working with the Game Commission's administrative staff on a parking problem. Kernan will head the committee. Field Representative C.D. Johansen attended the March meeting to discuss collective bargaining with the chapter members.

CONSOLIDATED CHAPTER 61 voted a $25 contribution to the OSEA scholarship fund at its March meeting in Portland.

N.W. OREGON FORESTRY CHAPTER 76 members heard a discussion of the OSEA-sponsored improvements to the PERS by Retirement Director Jerry Liebertz. His talk was followed by one on collective bargaining by Assistant Executive Secretary Edward L. Wilson.

JACKSON PARK CHAPTER 90 discussed the employee representation election which will be held at the University of Oregon Dental School on March 30.

District No. 2

SALEM CHAPTER 1 devoted its entire February meeting to Retirement Director Jerry Liebertz who outlined the OSEA-sponsored improvement to the Oregon PERS. After his discussion, Liebertz answered questions posed by chapter members.

MARION CHAPTER 18 awarded eight 100% membership certificates during its February meeting. The certificates were presented to Valuation-Timber Section, accepted by Winona McDougal; Utility-Industrial Section, accepted by Bernice Harlan; Income Division-Typing Section; accepted by Ann Gilchrist; Appeals Section, accepted by Evelyn May; Forest Products, accepted by June Wilson; Income Division-Comptometer Section, accepted by Gladys Irwin; Income Division-Stock Room, accepted by Avonelle Leek and Income Division-Cash and Banking, accepted by Betty Hastay. District No. 2 Director Edward J. Euker presented the certificates.

CAPITOL CHAPTER 19 invited Representative Cornelius C. Bateson (D-Marion) to speak at its February meeting. Bateson spoke on salaries, retirement and the proposed 1 1/2 per cent property tax limitation constitutional amendment.

AGRICULTURE CHAPTER 26 voted a $50 contribution to the OSEA scholarship fund. President Virgil Hiatt discussed collective bargaining with chapter members. The chapter unanimously passed a resolution complimenting James F. Short, Director of the Department of Agriculture, on the appointment of K.W. Sawyer to the position of Assistant Director.

OCE CHAPTER 43 members heard a discussion of collective bargaining by Assistant Executive Secretary Edward L. Wilson. The meeting was held on the OCE campus March 7th.

VAFA CHAPTER 69 invited Executive Secretary Thomas C. Enright to outline the latest developments on collective bargaining at its February meeting.

MOTOR VEHICLES CHAPTER 86 members were entertained by the Silverton Choralaires, a 27-voice high school choral group from Silverton Union High School, at the March meeting. The group, which has been invited to sing at the annual April Song Festival at Kailua High School in Kailua, Hawaii, is in the process of raising money to pay for the trip. Chapter 86 donated $37 and $28.75 from other employees was given to the group.

DISTRICT NO. 2 PRESIDENTS' COUNCIL heard a discussion on

RALPH E. BOLING, a charter member of OSEA who works for the Division of Audits in the State Treasury Department, was surprised when he won a picture of George Washington as the door prize at Capitol Chapter 19's February meeting. He was even more surprised when he turned the picture over and discovered eight smaller pictures of Washington on the other side. He thought it was a great way to celebrate Washington's birthday.

A CHECK FOR $65.75 WAS PRESENTED to Robert Thornton, left, Director of the Silverton High School Choralaires. The money, which will go to a fund to enable the singing group to make a trip to Hawaii in April, was donated by employees at the Department of Motor Vehicles. Presenting the check to Thornton is Helen Ready, President of Motor Vehicles Chapter 86 and Vern L. Hill, Director of the Department of Motor Vehicles.

HARD WORK BY THE KITCHEN CREW always guarantees better chapter meetings. Shown organizing the refreshments at the Evergreen Chapter 28 family potluck dinner held in Salem recently are Mrs. William Taylor, President Myrtle Jarvis and Secretary Jeanette Simpson.

employee grievances by Assistant Executive Secretary Edward L. Wilson. He outlined grievance procedures, lines of communication between employer and employee, staff assistance and collective bargaining-grievance relationships.

District No. 3

CRATER LAKE CHAPTER 16 held a social meeting in February at Central Point. Mr. and Mrs. Kert Wesheim presented slides taken in Europe.

CURRY CHAPTER 93 voted a $150 contribution to the student loan fund at Southwest Oregon College in North Bend. The funds will be made available to children of OSEA members. District No. 3 Director George Baker attended the February meeting to discuss collective bargaining.

District No. 4

BEND CHAPTER 3 voted a $50 contribution to the OSEA scholarship fund.

KLAMATH FALLS CHAPTER 12 President Harry Marshall discussed collective bargaining with chapter members during the February meeting.

District No. 5

LA GRANDE CHAPTER 4 voted a $25 contribution to the OSEA scholarship fund.

BLUE MOUNTAIN CHAPTER 94 voted a $25 contribution to the OSEA scholarship fund. President Cal Fouts informed chapter members that Retirement Director Jerry Liebertz will discuss the PERS in Pendleton on March 17. Ray Silvander, an OLCC employee, won first prize for naming the chapter's newsletter. It will be called "The Coffee Break."

District No. 6

ALBANY CHAPTER 7 presented the Order of Pin award to Stanford Blacksmith for enrolling 11 new members into the ranks of the association. The chapter voted a $30.50 contribution to the OSEA scholarship fund. President William Wingfield led a discussion at the February meeting.

CORVALLIS CHAPTER 29 annual family banquet will be held Friday, April 1, in the Roosevelt School gym. Bill Plemmons, Past-President and Social Chairman, announced that an OSEA talent show will be held in conjunction with the event. Henry S. Harbison, a charter member of OSEA, was granted life membership in Chapter 29 upon his retirement from state service in January.

EULANE CHAPTER 40 voted a $35 contribution to the OSEA scholarship fund. Arleeva Delany was presented with the Order of Pin award for enrolling 11 new members into OSEA.

OSU FACULTY CHAPTER 72 voted to increase its OSEA scholarship contribution from $50 to $75. The chapter also voted a $150 contribution for the purchase of a hearing aid for the use of a student at the Oregon State School for the Deaf. Chancellor Roy E. Lieuallen was a guest at the February meeting.

EMERALD CHAPTER 88 had as its guest speaker in February Retirement Director Jerry Liebertz. He described the present retirement system outlined the proposed improvements in the PERS which have been made by OSEA. Insurance Manager Donald G. Olds discussed the various OSEA insurance programs at the chapter's March meeting.

DISTRICT NO. 6 PRESIDENTS' COUNCIL heard a discussion of the Research Vessel "Yaquina" by Newport Chapter 11 President Noel Wengenroth. He outlined some of the grievances of the employees working on the vessel.

District No. 7

THE DALLES CHAPTER 9 voted a $50 contribution to the OSEA scholarship fund. Assistant Executive Secretary Edward L. Wilson outlined the latest developments in collective bargaining. The chapter will attempt to boost its membership to the 150 mark before the 1966 General Council.

District No. 8

ASTORIA CHAPTER 8 held a retirement party for John A. Thomas who retired recently after 46 years with the Oregon State Highway Department. Thomas was presented with a transistor radio by his friends and co-workers.

District No. 9

EVERGREEN CHAPTER 28 held a potluck on February 18 for over 125 persons. Entertainment was provided by 10 male members of the chapter who modeled the latest female fashions for the audience. The Nomads, a musical group from the Chemawa Indian School in Salem, also provided entertainment. Wage and Salary Analyst Everett B. Stiles and newly appointed Field Representative Donald A. Beninger attended the March meeting to discuss the latest developments in collective bargaining.

FAIRVIEW CHAPTER 57 was visited by Field Representative Donald A. Beninger who discussed collective bargaining. Beninger, a former President of the chapter before joining the OSEA staff, was presented with a $50 check for his work during the time he was President. The Grounds Crew and Heating Plant were presented with 100% Membership Certificates by President Fisher.

DAMMASCUS CHAPTER 95 voted a $15 contribution to the OSEA scholarship fund. In addition, the chapter also voted to award two $100 scholarships to members within the chapter.

DISTRICT NO. 9 PRESIDENTS' COUNCIL heard an address on collective bargaining and political activities within state service from Law and Legislation Director Harold W. Adams.

CONCERNED ABOUT COLLEGE COST?

AL THOMPSON

Send for free booklet showing costs at more than 2,000 colleges throughout the country. Ask about Standard's unique College Fund, which provides the funds for your child's college education, with a portion of your fund accumulating at 4%.

FRANK LAJOY

Standard
INSURANCE COMPANY
LIFE-HEALTH-GROUP
475 Cottage Street N. E.
Phone 581-1654
Salem, Oregon

Dear Al & Frank:
Please send free booklet showing costs at 2000 U.S. colleges and universities.

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____