

OSEA Chapters Throughout The State

Dammasch Chapter 95 members decorated this big Christmas tree for their party Dec. 16. Mr. and Mrs. Donald LaCasse, left, and Mr. and Mrs. Chiece Hallford posed for this picture.

"... and a doll, and a pony, and a new dress, and a ...". Shelly Kidd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kidd, gives Santa Claus the word after he arrived at the Christmas party sponsored by the three Klamath Falls chapters Dec. 9. Patsy Young, left, daughter of Mrs. Betty Young, awaits her turn.

Food Committee members sampled their handiwork before Dammasch Chapter 95 started its Christmas party Dec. 16. From left, Jack Morgan, Glenn Glasser, Roberta Watkins, Naomi Morgan, Lucille Vom Cleff, E. L. Watkins, Pearl Thorn and Victor Thorn.

No Christmas dinner would be possible without a hard-working kitchen crew. Here, from left, Jean Hotchkin, Frances Taylor, Betty Boyd and Mrs. Harry Marshall wash dishes after the Klamath Falls dinner.

Oregon Chapter 22 held its annual Christmas party in Salem Dec. 16. Among members attending were, from left, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilson, Don Chastain, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ridings, Mrs. Don Chastain and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Byerley.

Ray Baker, long-time secretary of Klamath Falls Chapter 12, and his wife enjoy dinner at the Klamath Falls Christmas party. The three chapters furnished turkey, ham, rolls and milk. Members brought vegetable and salad dishes.