

Chapter News

District No. 1

SUCCESS CHAPTER 30 has named Chalmers L. Jones as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is manager of the Portland Youth Opportunity Center and the North Portland Employment Office for the Department of Employment. He has been in state service 12 years.

PUBLIC WELFARE CHAPTER 31 selected Charles A. Thompson as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is chief investigator for the Department of Justice, and has been in state service five years.

MERCURY CHAPTER 39's "Chapter Employee of the Year" is Raymond Ruff. He is employed by the Board of Health as a sanitarian. He has been in state service 12 years. At its January meeting the chapter voted to contribute $50 to the OSEA scholarship fund.

U OF O MEDICAL SCHOOL CHAPTER 41 voted to contribute $50 to the OSEA scholarship fund at its January meeting.

OR-GA-CO CHAPTER 51 has named Dan L. Eastman as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is district game biologist for the State Game Commission, and has been in state service 14 years.

CONSOLIDATED CHAPTER 61 members heard a report on General Council activities and resolutions from Delegates Walter Young and Virginia Parkinson at the December meeting.

GRAIN DIVISION CHAPTER 62 announced the results of the chapter election at the January 10 meeting in Portland. The new officers are: Karl A. Heimbuch, president; Gordon C. Goheen, vice-president; and Richard C. Bentz, secretary-treasurer. Heimbuch is also chairman of the chapter's Labor Relations Board. Other members are Bud Oliver and Ted Cleman.

CLACKAMAS CHAPTER 71's "Chapter Employee of the Year" is William A. Knowles. He is field office manager for the Department of Motor Vehicles, and has been in state service almost 18 years.

District No. 2

MARION CHAPTER 18 named Mrs. Doris C. Martin as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." She is appeals secretary for the Tax Commission. Mrs. Martin has been in state service 23 years.

CAPITOL CHAPTER 19 named William J. LaClair as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is inheritance tax examiner for the Treasury Department, and has been in state service five years. Dr. Maurice S. Tarshis, educational consultant for the Mental Health Division of the Board of Control, will speak on the use and dangers of the drug LSD at the Feb. 14 meeting in room 321 of the Capitol. A film entitled "Insight or Insanity?" will be shown in conjunction with his speech.

COMPENSATION CHAPTER 20 has chosen George H. Dow as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is a graphic artist for the Workmen's Compensation Board, and has been with the state nearly 16 years.

OREGON CHAPTER 22 selected Verne L. Axelson as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." She is an administrative assistant for the Department of Employment, and has been with the state 25 years.

PUTNAM - STEPHENS CHAPTER 23 named Barbara J. Yarnell as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." She is a clerical staff supervisor in the Division of Instruction, Department of Education. She has been in state service 10 years.

FORESTRY CHAPTER 25 selected William P. Holtsclaw as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is Eastern Oregon supervisor for the Department of Forestry. He has been in state service 18 years.

AGRICULTURE CHAPTER 26 has named E. L. Henkel as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is disease control supervisor with the Department of Agriculture, and has been with the state three years.

OCE CHAPTER 43 selected Melva Seward as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." She is the head housekeeper at Oregon College of Education, and has been with the state 14 years.

VAFA CHAPTER 69 President Lyle White appointed a committee of Ramon Damerell, Joe McDonald and Versa Sachtler to investigate community improvement projects at the January meeting. The next chapter meeting will be held Feb. 15.

MOTOR VEHICLES CHAPTER 86 has named Darline Waterbury as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." She is supervisor of the Teletype Communications Center for the Department of Motor Vehicles. She has been in state service 13 years. Her chapter award was presented by DMV Director Vern Hill at the January meeting. The chapter's next meeting will be Feb. 13.

District No. 3

COQUILLE CHAPTER 10's "Chapter Employee of the Year" is Walter G. Denson. He is a section foreman for the Highway Department, and has been in state service 35 years.

CRATER LAKE CHAPTER 16 has named Kenneth L. Lucas as its "Chapter Employee of the GETS AWARD Verne Axelson, wage records supervisor for the Department of Employment, received her "Chapter Employee of the Year" certificate from Assistant District Two Director Ronald W. Nairn at a recent meeting of Oregon Chapter 22.

Year." He is a state park manager for the Highway Department, and has been in state service nearly 13 years. Chapter members voted a $25 contribution to the OSEA scholarship fund at the last meeting.

COOS BAY CHAPTER 65 selected Helen M. White as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." She is claims adjudicator and itinerant claims supervisor in the Coos Bay office of the Department of Employment. District Three Director Carl Winfrey and Field Representative C. D. Johansen will attend the chapter's March 4 meeting.

SISKIYOU CHAPTER 84 has chosen Edith Gettling as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." She is manager of the bookstore at Southern Oregon College, and has been in state service nearly nine years. General Council activities and resolutions were discussed by Russell Blair, Al Converse and Ruth Hickey at the January meeting.

District No. 4

KLAMATH FALLS CHAPTER 12 selected Ernest "Buzz" Wagner as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is district manager, timber maintenance, for the Tax Commission. The next chapter meeting will be held Feb. 13.

OTI CHAPTER 36 President Bill Warren presented Paul N. Connors with the "Chapter Employee of the Year" certificate. He is a maintenance electrician at Oregon Technical Institute, and has been employed by the state 20 years.

District No. 5

EOSH CHAPTER 52 named Donald R. Kelley as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is a meat cutter at Eastern Oregon State Hospital, and has been in state service nearly five years. At the January meeting, the chapter voted to contribute $10 to the OSEA scholarship fund as well as sponsor a one year scholarship to Blue Mountain Community College. A chapter dinner party will be held in the VFW Hall, Pendleton, on Feb. 24. The chapter's next business meeting will be Mar. 21.

BLUE MOUNTAIN CHAPTER 94 selected Jean Vogel as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." She is assistant office manager of the Department of Employment's Pendleton office. She has been in state service 13 years.

District No. 6

EUGENE CHAPTER 6 has named Fred C. Luke as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is a maintenance foreman for the Highway Department, and has been in state service 25 years.

NEWPORT CHAPTER 11 President Noel Wengenroth has resigned from office. Bob Ingersoll has moved up to president, and Deral McKeel is new vice-president.

CORVALLIS CHAPTER 29 has named Marvin L. Morlin as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is a patrolman at the information gate at the entrance to the Oregon State University campus. Morlin has been in state service four years. The chapter will sponsor a family potluck banquet in honor of its 1,000th member Feb. 23 in the Western View Junior High School. It will begin at 7:00 p.m. The main course of baked ham and grilled salmon will be furnished by the chapter.

EULANE CHAPTER 40 selected Max L. Dudley as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is administrator of Lane County Public Welfare, and has been in state service 34 years.

WEBFOOT CHAPTER 49 has chosen Lois N. Madsen as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." She is PBX operator at the University of Oregon. She has been in state service 10 years.

OSU FACULTY CHAPTER 72 named J. Lloyd LeMaster as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is professor of business administration at Oregon State University. He has been at the institution 40 years.

EMERALD CHAPTER 88's "Chapter Employee of the Year" was also named "State Employee of the Year" at a dinner in Salem Jan. 27. She is Martha Collins, an accounting clerk at the University of Oregon. Mrs. Collins has been in state service nearly 16 years.

District No. 7

THE DALLES CHAPTER 9 recently installed its 1968 officers. They are: Howard Steward, president; Robert Schertlieb, vice-president; and Erle L. Calhoun, secretary-treasurer. District Seven Director Earl Warzynski and Assistant Director Trudy Weed were guests at the meeting.

OREGON TRAIL CHAPTER 35 has named Darrell M. Klampe

as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is a caseworker for the Public Welfare Commission, and has been in state service 10 years.

District No. 8

ASTORIA CHAPTER 8 has selected R. M. Smith as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is district maintenance superintendent for the Highway Department. Smith has worked for the state 37 years. Leroy Boldt, chapter secretary, reports that District Eight Director Raymond G. Falleur is home from the hospital and improving slowly. Since his illness, Assistant Director Chester Reed has been acting director.

TILLAMOOK CHAPTER 15 has named Willard R. Berry as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is unit forester for the Department of Forestry, and has been in state service 17 years.

District No. 9

EVERGREEN CHAPTER 28 has chosen Melbert E. Clemens as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is an electrician for the Highway Department, and has been in state service six years. Chapter 28 will sponsor a potluck dinner-talent show on Feb. 23 at the Four Corners Community Hall in Salem. The talent show portion of the program will be on a unit or department basis and will be limited to OSEA members and immediate members of their families. The first, second and third winning contestants will be awarded gifts, and the unit or department they represent will receive a cash award.

WOODBURN CHAPTER 45 has named Rudolph Satalich as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is supervisor of recreation at MacLaren School for Boys. He has been in state service 10 years.

FAIRVIEW CHAPTER 57 heard a report on supplemental agreements being added to the basic collective bargaining contract between Fairview Hospital and OSEA by staff member Donald A. Beninger at the January meeting. President Emil Long said Jerry Liebertz, formerly OSEA's Director of Retirement, will discuss Oregon's new retirement system at the Feb. 13 meeting. It will be held in the Multi-Purpose Building.

CHERRY CHAPTER 67 has named Olaf L. Tellefson as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is printing instructor at the Oregon State School for the Deaf, and has been in state service 17 years.

HILLCREST CHAPTER 70 has selected Riter H. Dean as its "Chapter Employee of the Year." He is food manager at Hillcrest School for Girls. He has been in state service one and one-half years.

DAMMASCH CHAPTER 95 discussed the OSEA scholarship fund at its last meeting. The chapter "adopted" a local needy family during Christmas and donated a huge basket of food and clothing given by hospital employees. The chapter contributed $10 worth of fresh meat. Chapter members voted to purchase a bulletin board and donate it to the hospital.