

Chapter News

District No. 1

PORTLAND CHAPTER 17 President George Israel has been appointed by OSEA President Smith French as chairman of the District One Nominating Committee. Everett B. Stiles, OSEA's wage and salary analyst, attended the May 28 meeting to discuss collective bargaining in state service. The chapter's next meeting will be held June 9. Hugh Wade, a candidate for assistant director of District One, will be the guest speaker.

CONSOLIDATED CHAPTER 61 invited KPOJ Radio Disc Jockey Dick Novak to attend its May 23 meeting in Portland. Topic of his talk was "Bloopers on Radio and TV." The program was arranged by Virginia Parkinson, program and press chairman. President Loren Bridge appointed her as chairman of a committee to investigate current salary conditions for clerks and secretaries in the Portland area.

District No. 2

CAPITOL CHAPTER 19 heard an explanation of the life and income protection insurance available to state employees during the OSEA-Standard open-enrollment period from Allan Thompson, Standard Insurance Company, at its May 14 meeting. After his talk a film entitled "Wonderful World of San Francisco" was shown.

COMPENSATION CHAPTER 20 had District Two Director Eugene Kunkle and OSEA Insurance Manager Donald Olds as guest speakers at its May 14 meeting. Kunkle said OSEA's 1968 membership goal is 17,500 members. He urged chapter members to contact new employees and invite them to join. Olds described the life and income protection insurance available to state employees during the OSEA-Standard open-enrollment period. A question and answer period followed his talk. The chapter's next meeting will be held June 11.

OCE CHAPTER 43 held a party in honor of retiring member Ellis A. Stebbins at Oregon College of Education May 7. He worked for the college 40 years, and was dean of administration when he retired. Otto Barnell, former chapter president, presented Stebbins with a scroll which read, "In recognition of the many services performed above and beyond the requirements of his position, to the State of Oregon, Oregon College of Education and his co-workers in Chapter 43, OSEA, this scroll is presented to Ellis A. Stebbins."

OREGON CHAPTER 22 heard a report on its family picnic from Delma Chase. It will be held July 20 in Jory Park. The chapter will furnish Ham, chicken, ice cream, punch and rolls. The rest will be potluck. Families are asked to bring their own eating utensils. Verne Axelsson, who enrolled the seven remaining non-members in her section, was presented with OSEA's 100% membership certificate.

AGRICULTURE CHAPTER 26 donated $40 to Fairview Hospital and Training Center at its May 20 meeting. The money will be used to send patients to summer camp. District Two Director Eugene D. Kunkle presented OSEA's 100% membership certificates to the Plant Division, Laboratory Services, Agricultural Development and the Soil and Water Conservation Committee. All of the employees in those four sections are members of the association. Carmen Creecy reported on plans for the chapter's family picnic to be held this summer.

VAFA CHAPTER 69 President Lyle White appointed a Nominating Committee composed of: Vere McCarty, Joe McDonald, Anmaree McDaniel and George Causey. Causey is chairman. The chapter is presently working on plans to send one son and daughter of a chapter member to summer camp. Cost will be $40 per child. The chapter's next meeting will be held June 20.

MOTOR VEHICLES CHAPTER 86 was given an explanation of the OSEA-Standard open-enrollment period at its May 14 meeting by Frank Lajoy, Standard Insurance Company. He said state employees may obtain either life or income protection insurance during the open period without providing evidence of insurability.

LIFETIME CARD Edward F. Chidsey, a founding member of OSEA and its president in 1950, was given a lifetime membership card by Salem Chapter 1 upon his recent retirement. The presentation was made by Adele Egan, chapter president. Chidsey was with the Highway Department 46 years.

STEBBINS HONORED Ellis A. Stebbins, left, dean of administration at Oregon College of Education, was honored by his fellow members of OCE Chapter 43 upon his retirement. Otto Barnell, former chapter president, presented this scroll to Stebbins. He worked for the college 40 years.

SHELTER DEDICATED Elmer Lively, District Nine director, and Myrtle Jarvis, assistant director, helped these two Blind School students officially dedicate the school's animal shelter recently. The shelter was built by District Nine chapters as a community project.

District No. 3

COQUILLE CHAPTER 10, at its May 24 meeting, discussed OSEA's scholarship program. The association awarded $3,750 to 13 students for the 1968-69 school year. President P. A. Sunderland appointed a Nominating Committee.

COOS BAY CHAPTER 65 held a spaghetti dinner for its members and the OSEA Board of Directors May 17. Over 130 attended. Dave Backman and Joyce Martin were co-chairmen for the event. Other committee members were Helen White, Merle Ward, Jackie and Kathie Backman, Bill Bell, Cliff Turner, Gene Watson, and Kit O'Callahan.

CRATER LAKE CHAPTER 16 President John Priest invited Conrad J. Larsen to attend the May 14 meeting. He outlined the life and income protection insurance available through the OSEA-Standard group insurance plan.

SISKIYOU CHAPTER 84 had staff members Edward L. Wilson and Donald G. Olds as guests at its May 7 meeting in Ashland. Olds discussed the life and income protection insurance offered to state employees by the OSEA-Standard group insurance plan.

District No. 5

BAKER CHAPTER 37 held a social meeting last month in the Powder River Sportsmen's Club. District Five Director Del Chaney was a guest. The meeting was a family potluck, with the chapter providing meat, rolls, beverages and ice cream. Some 70 members and their families attended. A square dance was held after the dinner.

District No. 6

CORVALLIS CHAPTER 29's Nominating Committee gave a report at the May 28 meeting. A 15-member Collective Bargaining Council has been formed at Oregon State University. Ken Stueve, Physical Plant, is chairman. Frank Euren, Business Office, is vice-chairman and Clistie Stoddard, Communications, is secretary. Four sections at OSU have earned 1968 stickers to place on their 100% membership certificates. They are: Cashiers Office, Physical Plant Electrical Crew, the Key Punch Section of the Comptroller's Office and the Pay Roll Section of the Comptroller's Office.

OSU FACULTY CHAPTER 72 heard Chancellor Roy E. Lieuallen discuss the future of faculty welfare in higher education at a recent meeting. Some of the areas of non-salary benefits indicated for future study by Lieuallen were retirement, sabbatical leave, sick leave, insurance premiums, tax benefits, travel support, parking and moving costs. He also urged support for ballot measure three. Over 80 members attended.

EMERALD CHAPTER 88 held its May 14 meeting in the Erb Memorial Union, University of Oregon. The Elections Committee introduced the new officers who will be installed at the June meeting. They are: Barbara Stearns, president; Gus Pusateri, vice-president; Wilhelmina Bevers, secretary; and Bethel Jones, treasurer.

District No. 7

OREGON TRAIL CHAPTER 35 held a special meeting June 5 to discuss collective bargaining at Columbia Park Hospital and Training Center. Field Representative Donald A. Beninger attended. The chapter's regular meeting will be held June 20 in The Dalles park. It will be a picnic potluck.

District No. 8

ASTORIA CHAPTER 8 held its regular monthly meeting May 2 at the Odd Fellow Hall in Astoria.

District No. 9

FAIRVIEW CHAPTER 57, at its May 14 meeting, voted to contribute $50 to the Boy Scouts of America and $50 to Fairview Hospital and Training Center to send a patient to summer camp. Field Representative Donald A. Beninger attended the meeting to discuss collective bargaining with chapter members. The chapter's next meeting will be held June 11.

How should a young lady in Salem be addressed? In care of The Oiana of course!

An exclusive residence for women 18-35 located in downtown Salem near state office buildings. Rooms are light and airy and comfortably furnished. All are fully carpeted. A large, cheerful dining room, recreation room, television room and laundry facilities are also available. Accommodations provide the utmost in safety, comfort and privacy. Single room $50, twin room $35 monthly.

The Oiana

220 HIGH STREET N.E., SALEM
Telephone: 363-4151