

Chapter News

District One

PORTLAND CHAPTER 17 will hold its annual family picnic August 3 at Oaks Amusement Park. All employees of the Oregon Liquor Control Commission are invited to attend, regardless of whether or not they are members of OSEA. The chapter will furnish hot dogs, ice cream, punch and coffee, plus $10 worth of tickets for amusement rides for children. OSEA President Jerry Liebertz attended the May 18 meeting. He gave a final report on OSEA's 1969 legislative program.

COLUMBIA CHAPTER 34 President Wyatt Starr, at the June 12 meeting, explained to chapter members the correct procedure for submitting OSEA enrollment and transfer forms. Starr and other chapter officers will meet soon to discuss and establish regular chapter meeting dates.

CONSOLIDATED CHAPTER 61 President Loren Bridge discussed House Bill 1297 with chapter members at the May 15 meeting. The bill, which was adopted by the 1969 Legislature, extends civil rights provisions of the Labor Code to employers of one or more persons. It contains an amendment making discrimination in employment on account of sex an unlawful practice. Program Chairman Bernice Jungroth introduced Magician Larry the Great, who entertained with tricks in magic.

District Two

MARION CHAPTER 18, at its June 6 meeting, voted to contribute $100 to the Salvation Army's Trestle Glen Camp project to send handicapped youngsters to summer camp.

CAPITOL CHAPTER 19 voted a $200 donation to the Salvation Army's Trestle Glen Camp at its last meeting. The money will be used to send physically and emotionally handicapped children to summer camp.

COMPENSATION CHAPTER 20 heard a final report on OSEA's 1969 legislative program from staff member Everett B. Stiles at its June 10 meeting. He discussed the "4-6-5" pay package for classified employees and the "holiday bill," among other legislation.

OREGON CHAPTER 22 President Lois Ertsgaard presented OSEA's 100% membership certificates to the tax division and the management analysis division of the Department of Employment at the chapter's June 19 meeting. Julia Lang, who heads the chapter's Social Committee, outlined plans the committee has made for the annual family picnic. It will be held July 26 at 1:30 p.m. in Salem's Cascade Park.

PUTNAM-STEPHENS CHAPTER 23 voted to contribute $150 to the Salvation Army's Trestle Glen Camp project to send handicapped children to summer camp at its June 10 meeting. The chapter's Executive Committee was given authority to make arrangements for a luncheon to be held September 9, at which time the new chapter officers will be installed. A Resolutions Committee, composed of Donna Bleiler and Richard Myers, State Library; Weldon Hibbard and Lenford Isaacs, Board of Education; and Lorraine Bynum, Vocational Rehabilitation, has been appointed and will meet soon to begin work on chapter resolutions to OSEA's 1969 General Council.

AGRICULTURE CHAPTER 26 sponsored a golf tournament for chapter members and their wives at the Santiam Golf Club April 26. Charles Brown won men's low gross, and Gene Kunkle won men's low net; Eva Shrake won women's low gross, and Gen Morgan won women's low net. The chapter's annual family picnic will be held July 27 at Champoeeg Park near Wilsonville.

VAFA CHAPTER 69's guest speaker at its May 22 meeting was William LaClair, a member of Capitol Chapter 19. He described the Salvation Army's summer camp program for physically and emotionally handicapped youngsters at Trestle Glen Camp near Boring. The chapter voted to contribute $150 to the program.

FOR SUMMER CAMP William LaClair, a member of Capitol Chapter 19, hands Salvation Army Captain Glenn Austin $1,000 donated by District Two chapters for the Army's Trestle Glen Camp program to send handicapped children to summer camp.

District Three

ROSEBURG CHAPTER 2 held its annual family picnic for chapter members June 21 at the River Forks County Park. The chapter furnished meat, rolls, dessert and coffee. Chapter members brought salads and hot dishes. The next chapter meeting will be held July 17 at the Harris Cafe in Roseburg.

SISKIYOU CHAPTER 84 will hold its annual family picnic for chapter members July 20 at Southern Oregon College. The chapter will provide fried chicken, rolls, coffee and punch. Chapter members will furnish salads and desserts. There will be swimming at the SOC pool.

District Five

BLUE MOUNTAIN CHAPTER 94 awarded its $50 scholarship to Steve Potwin, son of Margaret Potwin, who works for the Department of Employment in Pendleton. Chapter member Bill Cogswell presented the award during the Pendleton High School graduation commencement. The chapter's annual family picnic was held June 26 at Stillman Park in Pendleton. The chapter provided hot dogs, hamburgers, coffee and milk. Members brought salads and desserts.

District Six

ALBANY CHAPTER 7 held a "potluck picnic" for chapter members and their families June 22 at the Game Commission's Roaring River Trout Hatchery. Guests included District Six Director William Plemmons.

CORVALLIS CHAPTER 29 installed its new chapter officers at a banquet June 24. OSEA President Jerry Liebertz installed officers. They are: Ken Stueve, president; Richard Roscoe, vice-president; Judy Stevens, secretary; Robert Newton, treasurer; Lenore Aitken, membership secretary; and Connie Johnson, assistant secretary.

EULANE CHAPTER 40 members elected President George Darland and Vice-President John Michaud as chapter delegates to OSEA's 1969 General Council at the June 3 meeting. The convention will be held in Portland in November. Michaud is also chairman of the chapter's Membership Committee. The chapter voted a $50 contribution to the fund to send Janice Logan to the 11th International Games for the Deaf in Yugoslavia in August. She is an OSEA member and physical education instructor at the Oregon State School for the Deaf.

District Eight

ASTORIA CHAPTER 8 Secretary-Treasurer Leroy Boldt gave a report to chapter members on the OSEA Board of Directors meeting held in May at the June 5 meeting. He attended the meeting in place of District Eight Director Ted Thompson. Roy Swanson, who represents the drawbridge operators on OSEA's Collective Bargaining Council in the Highway Department, reported on the council's last meeting in Salem. Chapter members voted to contribute $10 to OSEA member Janice Logan. The money will be used to defray expenses of her trip to Yugoslavia this summer to compete in the 11th International Games for the Deaf.

District Nine

WOODBURN CHAPTER 45, at its July 3 meeting at MacLaren School for Boys, was briefed on the "4-6-5" pay package for classified state employees by staff member Dale E. Leach.

FAIRVIEW CHAPTER 57 heard an explanation of Fairview Hospital and Training Center's summer camp program for Fairview residents from Recreation Director Marilyn Camp at its June 10 meeting. The chapter voted a $125 contribution to the program. President Jess Bryan read a letter from OSEA member Janice Logan, thanking the chapter for its $25 contribution to the fund to help her compete in the 11th International Games for the Deaf.

DAMMASCH CHAPTER 95's guest speaker at its May 15 meeting was staff member Donald A. Beninger. He discussed collective bargaining at Dammasch State Hospital and portions of civil service rules that pertain to overtime and holiday pay. Chapter members voted to contribute $25 to the fund to send OSEA member Janice Logan to the 11th International Games for the Deaf.

Les Sasada is our new innkeeper.
Come in and say hello.

★Always at competitive rates

Lounge ☆ 24-Hour Restaurant ☆ Pool

745 Commercial Street S.E., Salem Telephone: 363-2451

Our business is to save you money on your prescription drugs. To learn what you can save, come in, call or write:

PROFESSIONAL PHARMACY

Your COST-PLUS Store

Ted Morris, B.S., R.Ph.

Telephone: 585-5421

1690 12th Street SE

Salem, Oregon 97302