

Chapter News

District One

PUBLIC WELFARE CHAPTER 31 awarded OSEA's Order of Pin award to Helen Willard, a group representative for the chapter, at a recent meeting. She enrolled 18 members into the association. District One Director Beth Brandes presented the award to Janice Fabianich, who accepted it for Mrs. Willard.

COLUMBIA CHAPTER 34 elected its new officers for the coming year at its September 25 meeting. They are Wyatt Starr, president; Lee Potter, vice-president; and Eugena Wilcox, secretary-treasurer. Starr appointed John Scrivner and Harvey Townsend to the chapter's Employee of the Year Committee. The chapter has submitted six resolutions to the 1969 General Council.

CONSOLIDATED CHAPTER 61 elected its new officers for 1969-70 at its September 23 meeting in Portland. They are Virginia Parkinson, president; George Grady, vice-president; Iris Tucker, secretary; and Nancy Doughton, treasurer. OSEA President Jerry Liebertz, who attended the meeting, discussed the new variable annuity program which will be put into effect Jan. 1 by the Public Employees Retirement System. The chapter has submitted two resolutions to the 1969 General Council.

GRAIN DIVISION CHAPTER 62 elected new officers at its September 10 meeting. They are Charles Brown, president; Larry Behm, vice-president; Don Wray, secretary-treasurer. Other officers elected include Ed Rippet, insurance representative, and Ted Cleman, press correspondent.

N.W. OREGON FORESTRY CHAPTER 76 invited District One Director Beth Brandes to its August 28 meeting to install new officers. They are Robert Meadows, president; Charles Clay, vice-president; and Ed Van Gieson, secretary-treasurer.

District Two

COMPENSATION CHAPTER 20 elected its new officers for the coming year at its September 8 meeting. They are Clyde Huskey, president; Gladys Matthews, vice-president; Sabra Warford, secretary; and Paul Hedeon, Treasurer. The chapter is conducting a drive for clothing, food, toilet articles and other items to aid Byrd Cottage at Fairview Hospital and Training Center, which was destroyed by fire. Doug Farmer is chairman of the drive. Guests at the meeting included OSEA Vice-President Floyd Baxter and District Two Director Ron Nairn.

OREGON CHAPTER 22 heard a report from its Nominating Committee at the September 16 meeting in Salem. Candidates for chapter offices are Joe Doerfler, president; Jack

Dawson and Albert Bigej, vice-president; Mary Shires and Marjorie Byerly, recording secretary; Judy Clinebell and Delma Chase, financial secretary; and Vicki Webb, treasurer. Guests at the meeting included OSEA Vice-President Floyd Baxter, District Two Director Ron Nairn and former District Three Assistant Director Jim Dyer.

PUTNAM-STEPHENS CHAPTER 23 invited District Two Director Ron Nairn to install new officers at its September 16 meeting. The new officers are Donna Bleiler, president; Weldon Hibbard, vice-president; Helen Meyers, secretary; and Guy Waldroop, treasurer. The meeting was a luncheon held at the Timber Topper restaurant. Chapter members were admitted free.

SHOP AND FIELD CHAPTER 38 has elected its new officers for the coming year. They are Abner Johnson, president; Max Mitchell, vice-president; and Sherman Beall, secretary-treasurer.

District Three

ROSEBURG CHAPTER 2 heard a discussion of the resolutions being submitted to the 1969 General Council from staff member Everett B. Stiles at its September 18 meeting. New chapter officers for 1969-70 are Roy Beltz, president; Elmer Washington, 1st vice-president; Kenneth Montgomery, 2nd vice-president; and Connie Clune, secretary-treasurer.

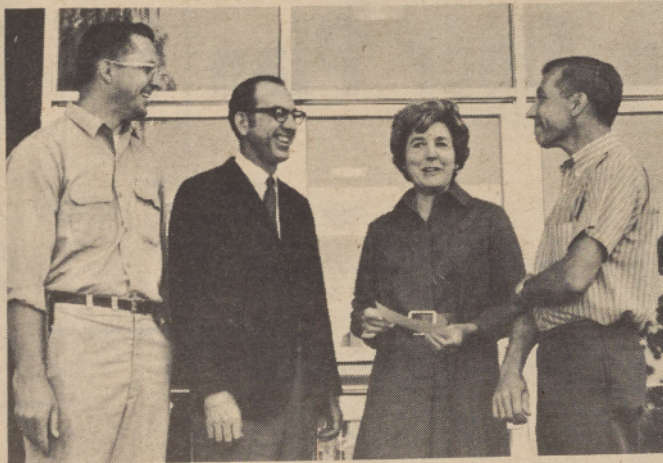

COOS BAY CHAPTER 65 held a potluck picnic for its members and their families September 6 at Sunset Beach Park. The chapter provided steaks; chapter members furnished salads, casseroles and desserts.

SOC CHAPTER 79 heard a discussion of OSEA's open-enrollment period for its medical-hospital, major-medical, life and income protection group insurance plans from Lawrence Gastorf, chairman of the chapter's Insurance Committee. The chapter has elected the following new officers for 1969-70: Harold Johnson, president; Jack Young, vice-president; and Edith Gettling, secretary-treasurer.

CURRY CHAPTER 93 invited staff member Everett B. Stiles to discuss General Council resolutions at its September 16 meeting. The chapter recently finished a major revision of its constitution and by-laws. New officers elected for the coming year are James Zib, president; Charles Peake, vice-president; and Alfred Smith, secretary-treasurer.

District Four

ANTELOPE CHAPTER 46 recently completed its election of new chapter officers for 1969-70. The new officers are Don Orey, president; Joe Bonnarens, vice-president; and Janice Story, secretary-treasurer.

CHAPEL FUND Evergreen Chapter 28 donated $100 to a fund to build an Interfaith Prayer Chapel at Oregon State Hospital. The money was accepted by Mrs. Clay Myers, honorary chairman of the Interfaith Chapel Fund Committee, and Rev. George Allen, OSH chaplain. The check was presented by President Deb Bolton, left, and Treasurer Wally Schmidt, right.

100% OSEA Curtis Chapman, who works for the Motor Vehicle Division in Beaverton, and his wife received one of OSEA's 100% membership certificates from Executive Secretary Thomas C. Enright at a recent meeting of District One Presidents' Council. Chapman accepted the award on behalf of his co-workers, all members of Tualaty Chapter 66.

NEW OFFICERS District Two Director Ronald W. Nairn installed these newly elected officers of Putnam-Stephens Chapter 23 at its last meeting in Salem. From left, Nairn, Donna Bleiler, president; Weldon Hibbard, vice-president; Helen Meyers, secretary; and Guy Waldroop, treasurer.

District Five

JOHN DAY CHAPTER 13 has elected its new officers for the coming year. They are Richard Tabor, president; Tommy Swisher, vice-president (Burns); Lloyd Tolman, vice-president (Vale); and Jackie Marshall, secretary-treasurer.

BAKER CHAPTER 37 recently completed its election of new chapter officers for the coming year. They are Jacob Bodewig, president; Wayne Jones, vice-president; and Ruth Huffman, secretary-treasurer.

PENDLETON CHAPTER 52 has elected new officers for the coming year. They are Carol Stout, president; Margaret Turner, vice-president; Dorothy Bird, secretary; and Evelyn O'Brien, treasurer.

SACAJAWEA CHAPTER 73 re-elected its present officers to serve another term. They are Tom Roper, president; Howard Fish, vice-president; and Rich Seufert, secretary-treasurer. Insurance Manager Donald G. Olds attended the September 14 meeting to explain the benefits of OSEA's various group insurance plans.

District Six

EUGENE CHAPTER 6 held its first meeting of the fall at Prairie Hall on September 16. Acting Vice-President C. L. Dornhecker opened the meeting. Don Wilson was elected chairman of the chapter's Resolutions Committee. The meeting adjourned following refreshments. The next meeting will be held Oct. 17.

CORVALLIS CHAPTER 29 members heard a discussion of OSEA's medical-hospital, major-medical, life and income protection group insurance plans from Jack Danley at the September 9 meeting. Chapter members also approved the 1969-70 budget. Chapter 29 has arranged for flu immunizations to be given to campus personnel during working hours at a cost of 50 cents per person.

EMERALD CHAPTER 88 has elected its new officers for the coming year. They are Jo Ann Youngblood, president; Christine Leonard, vice-president; Wilhelmina Bevers, secretary; and Pauline Allen, treasurer.

District Seven

OREGON TRAIL CHAPTER 35's Membership Committee Chairman, Mrs. Luetta Tibbets, has announced that all employees at Columbia Park Hospital and Training Center have been enrolled in OSEA. It is the first time in the chapter's history that it has had 100% membership. The chapter awarded Mrs. Tibbets a gift certificate for two dinners at the Recreation Cafe in appreciation for her work. New chapter officers are Charles Eisman, president; Zada Rolan, vice-president; and Alice Eisman, secretary-treasurer.

District Eight

ASTORIA CHAPTER 8 elected new officers for the coming year at its September 4 meeting. They are Ray Karpen, president; Victor Berger, vice-president; and Leroy Boldt, secretary-treasurer.

District Nine

FAIRVIEW CHAPTER 57 was visited by two representatives of the Standard Insurance Company at its September 9 meeting. They discussed the rates and benefits of the OSEA-Standard life and income protection group insurance plans. New chapter officers for 1969-70 are Emil Long, president; Medina Moore, 1st vice-president; Delbert Lewis, 2nd vice-president; Gertrude Peterson, secretary; and Mabel Jay, treasurer.

HILLCREST CHAPTER 70 has elected its new officers for the coming year. They are Robert Appledorn, president; Clifford McDaniel, vice-president; and Sanda Henny, secretary-treasurer.

TWILIGHT CHAPTER 91 invited District Nine Director Myrtle Jarvis to its September 9 meeting. She outlined the procedure to be followed if the chapter wanted to combine with Evergreen Chapter 28. Both chapters are located at Oregon State Hospital. She said each chapter member would be given the chance to vote on the merger.

DAMMASCH CHAPTER 95 invited staff members Donald G. Olds and C.D. Johansen to its September 5 meeting. They discussed OSEA's medical-hospital, major-medical, life and income protection group insurance plans. A question and answer period followed.