

General Council Speakers

Secretary of State Clay Myers will address delegates during opening day ceremonies, Thursday, October 14. He was appointed Secretary of State by Gov. McCall in 1967, and elected to that office for a four year term in 1968. He is a former insurance company vice-president, and had wide business and banking experience prior to entering state government. He is a trustee for the Oregon Council of Churches, and a member of the Board of Overseers for Lewis and Clark College.

Secretary of State

JASON D. BOE
State Senator

Smith French served as president of the Oregon State Employees Association in 1967 and 1968. He served two terms as its vice-president and three terms as director of District Seven. In addition, he has served as a member of various state, district, chapter and General Council committees. He will present the Association's Distinguished Service Award during the luncheon on Saturday, October 16. The award is presented each year by OSEA's Past-Presidents' Council.
