

First Round Winning Districts Named in Membership Contest

Winning districts in the first round of OSEA's six-month membership contest have been announced by Beth Mason, director of the Association's Membership Committee.

Golf Tournament Set for August 18

OSEA's tenth annual golf tournament will be held Saturday, August 18, at the Santiam Golf Club near Stayton.

Entry fee for this year's tournament has been raised $1.00—from $6.00 to $7.00. The extra charge is due to an increase in green fees, food and prize costs. Of the $7.00, $4.50 will be used to pay green fees and $2.50 will go toward the cost of lunch and prizes. The entry fee for members of Santiam Golf Club is $2.50.

The tournament will begin at 6:30 a.m. Foursomes will start from the first and tenth tees in order for all players to be on the course before 9:00 a.m.

Players will be divided into six flights, according to their gross score. Prizes will be awarded to the winners and runners-up in each flight. In addition, numerous miscellaneous prizes will be awarded.

As in past years, a "blind bogey" system will be used to compute net scores and determine flight winners, according to Darryl Storm, chairman of the tournament committee. Here's how it works:

Four handicap holes will be selected by the committee prior to the start of the tournament. Players will not be informed of the holes until after they have completed their rounds. A percentage of the strokes over par on the handicap holes will be subtracted from each player's gross score to determine his net score.

Winner of the championship flight will get his name inscribed on the Governor's Trophy. It was donated to the OSEA tournament by former Gov. Mark O. Hatfield.

Members who want to enter should complete the following entry form and mail it to headquarters along with their entry fee:

Results for the months of April and May are as follows: District Four defeated District Two, Districts Seven and Eight (which were combined as a single unit for purposes of the contest) defeated District Nine, District Six defeated District One and District Five defeated District Three.

Pairing of the winning districts for the second round of the contest (June and July) are as follows: District Four vs. Districts Seven and Eight and District Six vs. District Five.

The two winning districts of that pairing will compete for the final two months of the contest (August and September) to determine the champion district for the six month period.

In addition, the four losing districts will continue in the competition for the remainder of the contest. The second round pits District Two against District Nine and District One against District Three.

Objective of the contest is to determine which district can achieve the highest percentage gross gain of new members during the six month contest, Mrs. Mason said.

Winning districts are those that record the greatest percentage gross gain in membership in each of the contest's three rounds, she explained. That percentage is determined by dividing the total membership of a district into the total number of new members gained by that district during each two month period.

Candidates to Get Newspaper Space

As it has in past years, The OSEA News again will provide space to candidates seeking election to the Association's 1973-74 Board of Directors at the General Council this fall.

A deadline of August 5 has been set for receiving material from candidates for publication in the August issue.

The material should include the candidate's personal information, state employment history, experience in OSEA and a brief statement by the candidate or his or her supporters as to why the candidate should be supported. Total material should not exceed 175 words.

In addition, each candidate may submit a 3" x 4" head and shoulders glossy photograph suitable for publication.

The ten board positions to be elected by delegates attending the 1973 General Council in Portland this October include president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and directors of the following committees: academic and unclassified services, employe representation, institutions, insurance, membership, public relations and retirement.

Court Order Stops California's Good Friday Holiday

The state of California has been directed by a state trial court to stop giving its employes a paid holiday on Good Friday.

The order came in a suit brought against the state by one of its employes of Jewish faith who was denied leave with pay for time off on Yom Kippur. She complained that her fellow employes were given time off with pay for a similar purpose on Good Friday.

A state trial court agreed with her and directed the state to stop granting Good Friday as a paid holiday to all employes. The court said the holiday violates the "benevolent neutrality" imposed on government by the federal constitution with regard to religious matters.

In addition, the trial judge held that the practice had the tendency of promoting the Christian faith but not other religions.
