NIGHT SHIFT DIFFERENTIAL

Application: All eligible employees shall receive the shift differential rate of fifteen cents (15¢) per hour over and above the employee's regular hourly rate of pay.

Eligibility: Shift differential shall apply to all classified employees except those persons appointed temporarily as provided in ORS 240.380 and those part-time employees working less than 32 hours per month. In order to qualify for shift differential an employee must be in a job classification which is eligible for overtime compensation and be assigned to a scheduled period of work called a night shift. Employees must work at least three (3) night shifts in a thirty (30) day payroll period to qualify.

Definitions:

1. Night Shift. A scheduled period of work in which at least 50% of such period is between the hours of 6:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m.
2. Scheduled period of work. The first 8 hours for full-time employees and the scheduled number of hours for part-time employees.

Leave of Absence with Pay: Shift differential shall not be applied to base rates in computation of payment for periods of leave of absence with pay, such as vacation and sick leave.
