

OSEA in photos

The first of five meetings scheduled to be held outside of Salem by OSEA's Board of Directors was held in Roseburg Jan. 10. The board also will meet in Portland on March 6, Eugene on May 8, Pendleton on July 10 and in Portland again on September 8.

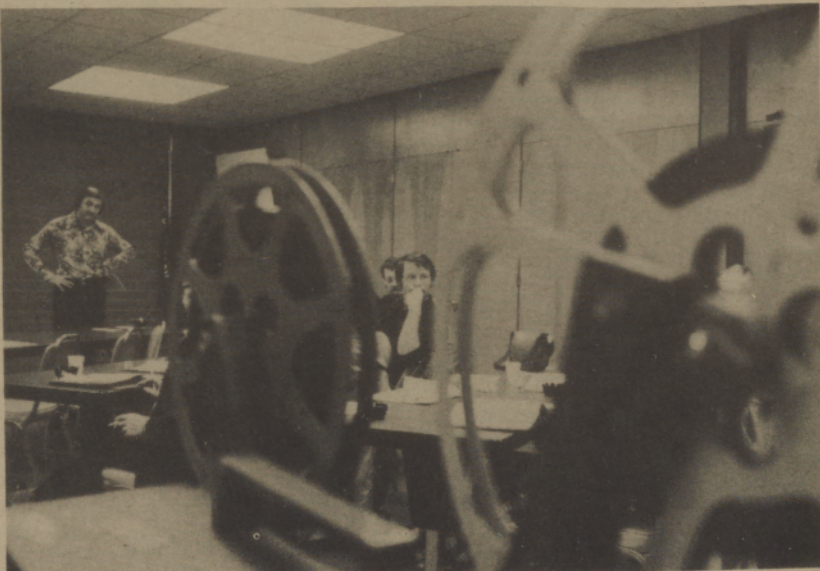

The Jan. 10 meeting of OSEA's Board of Directors in Roseburg drew a standing room only crowd. District Three Director Beverly Schwartz said most of the chapters in her district were represented. In addition, members from Eugene, Salem and Portland attended.

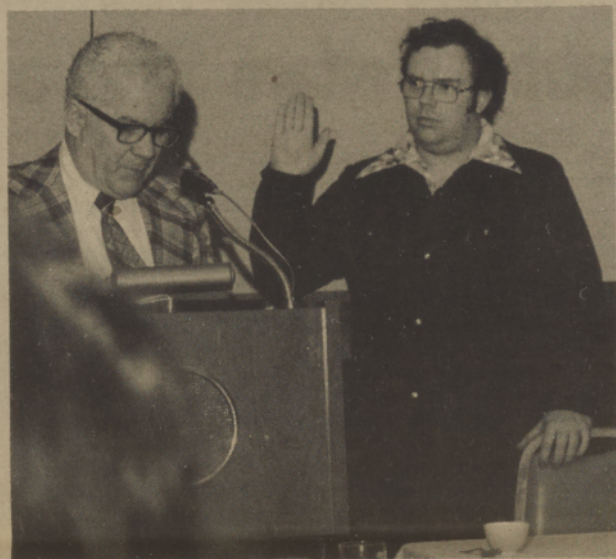

Jean Runyen, right, has been honored at a recent District 1 meeting for her 21 years' service in the state and an equal number of years as an OSEA member. Here she is receiving a Membership Recognition Award from District 1 Director Lucinda Tate.

Members of Capitol Chapter 19 voted unanimously to contribute $300 to the OSEA Student Financial Aid Program at a meeting recently. They also voted to ratify the proposed changes in the OSEA constitution approved at the 1975 General Council.

Some 30 members showed up this month at a job representative workshop held for employees of the Employment Division. During the workshop they saw a movie of possible grievance situations. After each scene the movie was stopped and the group discussed the possibilities for a grievance. Similar day-long workshops will be held by OSEA staff for employees of other agencies in the state.

Dave Saunders, who works for Children Services Division and a member of Beaver Chapter 31, is sworn in by past-president Jerry Liebertz as a district representative at a recent meeting of the District 1 presidents' council.

OSEA Executive Secretary Morton Shapiro, standing center, spoke to a lunch meeting of Capitol Chapter 19 recently. Chapter president Milton McRae is seated to Shapiro's right. Employee Representative Gilbert Polanski is seated to his left.

The first meeting of OSEA's AGE and WAGE Relations Committee was held at headquarters last week. James R. Dyer, Oregon Chapter 22, is chairman of the committee. He is flanked by members Walter Schmidt, left, Fairview Chapter 57, and George Ball, Eugene Chapter 6.