

For Assistant Director

JEANIE JOHANN

Jeanie Johann says "I am supportive of a democratic association that is run by the membership and for the membership. Since becoming a member of OSEA, I have served as a job representative, a Resolutions Review Committee member, a delegate (attending all district meetings and the 1977 General Council) and an elected member of the Employment Division BURC. I am presently enrolled in a labor relations class at Portland Community College and have completed a credited class in Basic Unionism and have also attended many workshops conducted by OSEA. My goal is to see that the dues-paying member is kept aware of the manner in which their monies are being spent and that the expenditures are in the best interest of the membership."

For Assistant Director

LEE HEINDLE

Lee Heindl says "The upcoming District 10 Elections are more important than any in recent years. OSEA is wracked by charges and countercharges involving the Executive Director, district officers and staff versus rank-and-file. Changes within OSEA can and must come about. But, I earnestly feel that these changes must come in the way prescribed in the OSEA Constitution -- through resolutions presented and debated at General Council. Rumor and hysteria have no place in OSEA.

If you want leadership based on responsible thinking, sound judgement and a desire to represent all members as prescribed by the Constitution and By-Laws then we, Earl Beier and Lee Heindl, solicit your vote. With your backing we can do the job." For the past year, Heindl has been Chapter 61 Secretary, Resolutions Committee chairperson, Newsletter editor, alternate delegate to General Council, and member of the Nominations and Election committees. Currently, she is a member of her agency's BURC.

District Eleven

For Director

RUSS HEINEMANN

Russ Heinemann says "I would like a second term as district director because I only now understand how OSEA functions. I recognize the problems and want to help solve them. The Association has to reorganize to meet the challenge of collective bargaining. More emphasis must be placed on bargaining unit representation. We need to better incorporate city and county groups into the mainstream of OSEA. We must guarantee all bargaining unit representation. We need to better incorporate city and county groups into the mainstream of OSEA. We must guarantee all bargaining units a voice in running OSEA. One year in this position is not sufficient. I ask for your support." In addition to being the incumbent District 11 Director, Heinemann was president for two years of Chapter 22. He has been a General Council delegate for two years, Employment Division BURC member, chairman of the Staff Screening Committee and a member of the CASE Administrative Committee.

For Assistant Director

LEANN GILMER

LeAnn Gilmer is in her first term as Assistant District 11 Director. She served two years as chapter president and one year as chapter program chairman and she worked as the chapter's newsletter editor. She is a member of the Association Operations Committee, the District government relations committee and was elected Chapter 21 employee of the year in 1975.

District Twelve

For Director

ANNA SUE HOLLISTER

Anna Sue Hollister the current District 12 Director, also is a member of the CASE Administrative Committee and the University of Oregon classified BURC. She has served as assistant director both for old District 6 and for District 12. She has been her chapter's president, vice president and General Council delegate and alternate. She chaired the Retirement Committee at the 1977 General Council. She has served on several committees including Employee Representation, Finance (Association Operations), Resolutions Review, Staff Screening, Affirmative Action and General Council Credentials.

For Assistant Director

GEORGE D. BALL

George Ball is the incumbent Assistant District 12 Director. He served one year as a District 12 alternate General Council delegate-at-large and four years representing Chapter 6. He served one year as president of Chapter 12.

For Assistant Director

MARGE MOORE

Marge Moore currently is the president of Chapter 40. She has been the secretary of Chapter 20 and has represented either Chapter 20 or Chapter 40 as a delegate or alternate delegate to two General Councils. She has been a member of the Membership Relations Committee for two years.
