

Second SEIU award given OPEU; 39 earn scholarships

The Service Employees International Union and the Oregon Public Employees Union have awarded scholarships to OPEU/SEIU Local 503 members and children.

Michaela Ledesma has won both a $3,000 SEIU scholarship, payable in four annual $750 installments, and a $350 OPEU scholarship for entering freshmen. Ledesma, studying international trade at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., is the daughter of Kathleen J. Ledesma, Silverton, who works at Children's Services Division, Local 412.

OPEU has awarded $23,625 in scholarships to 39 members or children and grandchildren of members beginning or continuing a college or university education this fall.

With special consideration being given to current and laid-off employees, the awards went to 24 continuing college students and 15 graduating high school seniors. Entering freshmen receive $375; continuing students, $750.
