

Strike Back '95 to Contract Fight '97: Building on Victory!

When OPEU's State Bargaining Team reached a tentative agreement with negotiators for the Department of Administrative Services on April 25, 1997, they harvested the fruits of our Union's struggle two years earlier. The deal reached that evening was a direct result of our Union's 1995 strike and the power which that historic event established not just for state workers but for every worker organized under the banner of the Oregon Public Employees Union/SEIU Local 503.
