“Steward Recognition awards are for stewards who have gone above and beyond the call of duty. We honor ten of our best with the Hammer of the Working Class Award every two years. This is your chance to say thank you. Anyone can nominate a steward. Get your nomination in by Friday, November 17. And come to our statewide stewards' conference February 2-4. It's open to all members. Be there or be square!”

Members work in committees to make recommendations on resolutions to General Council.

General Council is a time to direct policy, approve our budget, and network with members.

New delegate training prepares members for General Council.

One of the responsibilities as a delegate is to speak out.

Members participate in a solidarity action against Measures 41 and 48.

Members volunteer as pages and sergeants-at-arms.

We celebrate our victories and acknowledge hard work and success.

Votes on some resolutions were too close to call and required a standing vote.
