

Frontline workers have insight that budget writers need to hear. SEIU members spoke at hearings and townhalls throughout Oregon. Pictured (R - L) is Paula Allen, Melany Hammang, and Arthur Towers at the hearing on Senate Bill 329. This bill was passed in the Senate but killed in the House.

Members went to townhalls throughout Oregon and asked Representatives and Senators questions about issues that affected our jobs and the quality services we provide. At the mike is Joan Wesley, from Waldport, who urged the Committee to not slash the budget for the clients 13,000 home health care workers help each day.

Purple was the color of the session. SEIU members filled the Capitol at Lobby Days, at hearings, and on the floor of the legislature as we held elected officials accountable to the people of Oregon. We made our bosses work this session!
