

Who Will Care for the Caregiver?

By Jeannette Cornell

*Who will care for the caregiver
When the caregiver at last needs care?*

*Lord knows they don't do it for money,
The State claims its' budget's too low;*

*Who will bathe, clothe and feed her,
Brush her teeth, clip her nails, comb her hair?*

*Some say that it must be rewarding,
Just try it if you want to know;*

*Who will care for the caregiver,
When she's old and infirm and alone?*

*So be kind when confronting a caregiver,
Remember they are people too!*

*Will any be there to remember,
How dependably she came to their home?*

*Who will take care of the caregiver?
I fear that I hadn't a clue...*

*They are, and with rare exception,
Quite faithful in all that they do;*

Until I joined the Union and Found out just how much we can do!

*And with little concern for their person,
They are solely devoted to you!*
