

Homecare Workers On The Move!

Over a thousand people thronged the capitol to show support for schools and services.

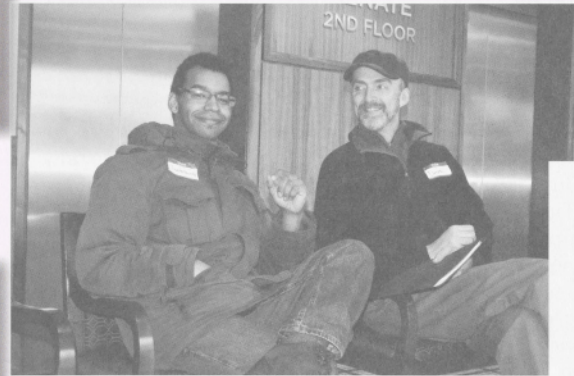

Hundreds filled the Capitol Rotunda sending a strong message to legislators during the February session

We had our first-ever Lobby Day dedicated to people with developmental disabilities and mental health issues.

When the Governor gave a talk on the Future of Healthcare, we were there leafleting.

Members leafleted at the Governor's "State of the State" address.

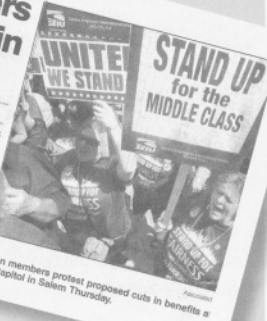

We staged a sit-in at the Governor's office.

Union members stage sit-in in state Capitol

Associated Press
 SEIU's largest public employee union briefly took over the state Capitol on Thursday.
 Members of the Service Employees International Union staged a sit-in in the Capitol Rotunda.
 The sit-in was part of a protest against proposed cuts in state services.
 The protesters, who were mostly women, held signs and chanted slogans.
 They demanded that the Legislature look at cutting tax breaks for corporations and other wealthy entities.
 The protesters also demanded that the Legislature look at cutting tax breaks for corporations and other wealthy entities.
 The protesters also demanded that the Legislature look at cutting tax breaks for corporations and other wealthy entities.

Union members protest proposed cuts in benefits at the Capitol in Salem Thursday.

