

Organizing—Organizing new members into the Labor Movement is critical to workers without a collective voice and to current members whose strength is dependent on our numbers increasing.

“Alice’s commitment to organizing gave us the opportunity to be a union. She joined us in Parry Center bargaining for our first contract and just recently when we were at a deadlock. Her involvement was critical. Alice listened to us and bargained with us.”

Timothy Welp, Parry Center Local President

We’re Voting To Re-Elect Alice!
