EUGENE DIVINITY SCHOOL.

W. T. Matlock has moved to Carlton. He expects to re-enter school in '01.

Several of the students will hold protracted meetings for their churches at the close of the term.

Some of the class in oratory have been delivering ex-temporaneous speeches. It was extremely enjoyable for the rest of the class.

The new catalogue will be out June 1. It will contain some changes, we learn.

Dean and Mrs. Sanderson and some of the students attended a convention at Pleasant Hill last week.

Y. W. C. A.

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Y. W. C. A. and each one present seemed to realize it to be the most pleasant hour of the week. The theme was "Reward for Service." The promptness with which the meetings are begun and the heartiness with which the majority present enter the services make them an inspiration to all who attend.

The association, realizing that prayer is the most affective means of receiving blessings, and wishing to obtain the greatest possible benefit from the summer Conference, instituted a prayer meeting to be held in Deady hall at 10 a. m. each day during the session of the Conference. These meetings are being well attended.

The meeting next Wednesday 23d, will be led by Miss Leila Straub. Subject: The Student's Prayer, Ps. 19:1-14.

A. F. Ambrose, business manager of the Seattle Argus, died of pneumonia, May 18th. Mr. Ambrose was a former U. O. student.
