At Corvallis.

The Oregon Agricultural College, at Corvallis, is again permitted to take part in intercollegiate athletics. The following rules governing this department of student affairs at Corvallis may interest our own students.

RULE I.—No one shall be allowed to represent O. A. C. in any public athletic contest, either individually or as a member of any team unless he can satisfy the committee on the regulation of athletic sports that he is, and intends to be throughout the college year, a bona fide member of the college, taking a full year's work.

RULE II.—No one who is not a regular student of the college, and no regular student of the college who has ever played in any intercollegiate contest upon a class or university team of any other college, shall play upon an O. A. C. team till he has resided one year at the college and passed the annual examinations on a full year's work.

RULE III.—No student shall be allowed to represent O. A. C. in any public athletic contest, either individually or as a member of any team, who, either before or since entering the college, shall have engaged for money in any athletic competition, whether for a stake, or a money prize, or a share of the entrance fees or admission money, or shall have taught or engaged in any athletic exercise or sport as a means of livelihood; or who shall at any time have received for taking part in any athletic sport or contest any pecuniary gain or emolument whatever, direct or indirect, with the single exception that he may have received from the college organization, or from any permanent amateur association of which he was at the time a member, the amount by which the expenses necessarily incurred by him in representing his organization in athletic contests exceeding his ordinary expenses.
