Notes.

If you are a Sophomore, do come to that class meeting.

Miss McMurren, '05, has moved nearer the University.

Miss Ina Stillwell, of Dayton, registered as a special student last week.

J. R. Barber, '99, is a member of the Senior class at Rush Medical College.

Mr. Ressler was confined to his room with a cold, the last days of the week.

Mr. Whittlesey has been conducting Prof. Young's classes during his illness.

Chas. Campbell made a business trip to Portland during the latter part of the week.

Miss Edith Wilson was kept out of school the latter part of the week by illness.

Miss Estella Milrath, '04, has been out of school for a week on account of illness.

Miss Winnifred Smith, '05, has returned to school after an illness of several days.

Mr. Lord, a former student at the University, is going to San Francisco for his health.

Mr. Shirk, the last member initiated into the Sigma Nu, has moved to the "Frat" house.

Mr. W. G. Nash was unable to leave his room for the latter part of the week, on account of sickness.

Ferd Strange was out of school a week on a big timber cruise. He is back again, tenderfooted, but happy.

Professor Young has been seriously ill for some time past, in fact so much so that he was unable to meet his classes.

The Cicero class:—
"Go not my horse the better,
I must become a borrower of the night,
For a dark hour or twain."

Howard Latourette, of Oregon City, has been compelled to drop his work at the University on account of bad health. He returned home last week.

"Spider" Kelley, the star artist of the U. O., is back at the University again. He thought for a time that he would be unable to return this year.

Dr. Frank Strong went to Silverton Friday afternoon and in the evening lectured under the auspices of the Methodist church at that place.

The Seminar of History held an interesting session last Wednesday evening. Professor Schafer addressed the meeting on the importance of historical criticism.

On Thursday evening, the Shakespeare Club met at the home of Miss Margaret Bannard and discussed "Macbeth." The evening was pleasantly and profitably spent by the members of the club.

Regent Hilton was in Eugene last week. In company with President Strong, he inspected the University, and expressed himself as well pleased with the new building and things about the campus generally.

Next Wednesday, at 3:30 p. m., two selected teams of the U. O. will play indoor baseball in the Gymnasium, to which all are invited. The line-up will be about the same as it was at last Saturday's game. Admission will be free.

Oscar Gorrell entertained some of his lady friends at the Dormitory, room 12, on Thursday afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served, including French kisses, apples, dried prunes and fresh water. All present say they enjoyed themselves.

Last Monday, while standing near the fire at Mrs. Austin's, Miss Mabel Morris' dress caught fire. In helping to extinguish the flames, one of Mrs. Austin's hands was severely burned. Beyond a few slight burns, Miss Morris suffers no inconvenience.

In Wednesday's Register was printed a letter from O. P. Overton, '98, who is in his final year in the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Chicago. He states that J. H. Carrico, '99, and Hartford Sweet, '01, are in the same institution, Carrico a Senior and Sweet a Sophomore.

The Senior class met on Wednesday and finally decided that the class should have caps and gowns. A committee was appointed to look into the matter of class pins. A Senior reception is being agitated among the members of the class, but no definite action has been taken regarding the matter.

Ode to the last Ammonite:—

The vain little ammonite,
In structure so intricate,
With its beauty most infinite,
The last of the Cephalos,
Was forced to give up the ghost,
And to mark, by its shell, the close
Of the period Cretaceous.

Festival Music.

Hon. Wallis Nash, father of W. Gifford, will deliver a lecture at the M. E. church next Wednesday evening, Jan. 22, at 8 o'clock, on the "Festival music and its authors, Handel, Mendelssohn and Rossini."

This lecture is to be given under the auspices of the Eugene Oratorio Society, and will no doubt prove to be very entertaining, not only to musicians, but to all lovers of music. There will be no charge for admission to this lecture, the expense being borne by the local society.
