SORORITY TEA

The members of the Theta Psi were entertained at the home of Miss Dodge Saturday afternoon. This was the first meeting of the sorority for the year, and everyone had a delightful time. An informal business meeting occupied the early part of the afternoon, and then a dainty lunch was served. Those present were, Miss Bannard, Miss McKinlay, Miss Cleaver, Miss Melrath and Miss Crawford.

The reports of the delegates to Capitola had to be postponed as some of them could not be present. The meeting was lead by Miss Lula Craig. An address delivered by Dr. Bell at Capitola was read and quite a number commented on it. Mrs. DeCou was at the meeting and made a few remarks which were very much appreciated by the girls.

The meeting this week will be held at 5 o'clock as so many of the girls have classes at 3 o'clock. Miss Armitage will lead the meeting which will be on the Missionary topic. All girls are invited.

JUNIOR ANNUALS

The class of 1903 has a few copies of the "Webfoot" still on hand. In order to facilitate the sale of the remaining copies they have reduced the price to $1.
Every new student will find the book an extremely interesting one and should not miss the rare opportunity of buying while the price is so low. Any member of the senior class will furnish the annual at $1.00 a copy.

ANNUAL RECEPTION

The annual reception of the literary societies to new students took place in the gymnasium, Saturday evening, and is conceded to have been one of the best society receptions ever given at the 'Varsity. The gymnasium was tastefully decorated with wild shrubbery and lighted by Japanese lanterns.

Students began to arrive about 8 o'clock and by 9:30 the building was full.

Green freshmen, smart sophomores, dignified juniors and the high and lordly seniors with an occasional "Prof." scattered here and there, mixing together in the jolliest kind of conversation and all having a good time. At 9:30 chairman P. Wold rapped for silence and the program began. Dr. Rice favored the audience with a short lecture in which he spoke briefly of the benefit to be gained from society work and of his own experience in college literary societies.

Following this Miss Yorlan rendered a vocal solo in her usual charming manner.

The third and last number on the program was a laughable Japanese farce in which the leading parts were played by Misses Rosa Dodge, Mabel Eaton, Gene Crawford, and Alice McKinlay.

After the farce the divided leaves of a Junior Annual were distributed among the audience, the gentlemen taking one half and the ladies the other so that the lady and gentleman whose half leaves formed a perfect leaf became partners after which dancing then ruled till 11 o'clock.
