COLLEGE NOTES

C. N. McArthur is in Eugene for a few days.

Professor Carson spent Thanksgiving recess in Portland.

Rose Parrott, ex-'02, was visiting in Eugene a few days last week.

Miss Harriet Warfield, '01, spent a few days with college friends last week.

Coach Dolph will play half-back on the Multnomah eleven for the rest of the season.

Regent S. H. Friendly made a trip to Portland Wednesday partly to see the big game.

Carl McClain reached Eugene Sunday morning and will resume work at the University.

Miss Sparks left last week for her home in Baker City. She will not return to the University.

Professor Glen went to Corvallis last Wednesday on business connected with the coming music festival.

J. B. Winstanley, ex-'03, came up from Salem last Wednesday and is spending a few days with old friends.

Miss Antonette Burdick went to Cottage Grove last Monday in response to a message that her mother was dangerously ill.

The drawing room which was the scene of the farce, "To Oblige Benson," has been distributed around to its several owners.

The 'Varsity football team went through some secret signal practices last Monday afternoon getting ready for the game with Multnomah.

The football team went to the Baker Thursday evening after the game and gave a few Oregon yells just to let people know they were there.

Professor McKinlay went with the football team to Portland. His sympathies were about equally divided between the two contesting games.

The receipts from the Junior farce amounted to about $55. All expenses have not been met yet, and it is impossible to determine just what the profit on the transaction will be.

The indoor baseball team did not elect a captain Tuesday afternoon. The boys were slow getting in and it was decided to try another time. A meeting will probably be held Wednesday afternoon to elect a captain. Practice will begin before long.

T. L. Williams, '03, associate editor on the Monthly, arrived in Eugene last Friday and will resume his work at the University. His parents will reside here during the rest of the college year. The glee club will be glad to welcome back one of their best tenors.

OFF FOR PORTLAND

The football team accompanied by managers and coaches took the Wednesday afternoon train for Portland. A throng of students were at the depot to see them off. The special car chartered by manager Wright was packed to overflowing with excursionists who were eager to see the great game of the season. As the train pulled out a crowd of team men gave a few rousing yells which met an enthusiastic response from those who were left behind. An overflow of students and friends were compelled to take the regular train and pay the regular rates. The following students saw the game:

Misses Dobie, Benson, Dale, Coffee, Hawthorne, Patterson, Crawford, Renshaw, Norma Hendricks, Elma Hendricks, Ruby Hendricks, Pearl Luckey, Dollie Ankeny; Messrs. Bailey, Tomlinson, Sheldon, Sherk, Dale, Donnelly, Ware, Henderson, Cleveland, Latourette, Graham, Plummer, Campbell, Merchant, Harry Dolph, Claude Wright, Ralph Fenton, Condon Bean and Roy Bean.

IN RETROSPECT

The football season is over and it might be of interest to review the accomplishments of our team for the year. The first team has played seven games, tied three, won three and lost one. The following are the scores:

October 18—U. O., 0; Albany College, 0.
Oct. 22—U. O., 6; Whitman College, 0.
Nov. 1—Varsity, 11; Medics, 0.
Nov. 8—U. O., 0; O. A. C., 0.
Nov. 15—U. O., 0; Albany College, 0.
Nov. 21—U. O., 70; Pacific University, 0.
Nov. 27—U. O., 0; Multnomah, 16.

The Daily Palo Alto contains an interesting article giving the list of deaths and injuries that have resulted from football. Ten have been killed and seventy have received severe injuries, besides the minor accidents that are not listed.

L. L. Lewis, '02 was in Eugene Monday. He had been employed as accountant for the Booth-Kelly Lumber Co., at Coburg, but received a transfer to Saginaw. He left on the afternoon train for his new location.

There is quite a warm contest over the future control of the Daily Californian. Four "frats" are lined up in war-paint exchanging courtesies.

Professor Burden went with the football team to Portland. He did not carry with him the usual good luck for the boys.

Professor Condon will address the assembly next Wednesday on "The State University at work."

President Campbell attended the teachers' institute at LaGrande last week.
