LIBRARY NOTICE

The Annual Literary Index to Periodicals, Book-Chapters, etc., so useful in University of Oregon library has been improved in the issue for 1905.

Entries, instead of being by title only with separate author index, are by author, by title and by subject, which greatly increases the usefulness of the work. There are retained the indexi to general literature, the bibliographies, the necrology and indexi to dates of principal events for the year. Italics are used to distinguish fiction and the title is changed to "The Annual Library Indexi."
