took left-end and Voight went in at left guard.

Clarke caught the kick off. Two more runs by Oberteuffer and Taylor put the ball over for the seventh time. Clarke kicked the goal. Score, Oregon 40; Pacific, 0.

Ferrin kicked again to Clarke. At this stage two more penalties checked Oregon's steady grind of touchdowns. It was not for long however, and although suffered two more such penalties the eighth goal was soon kicked. Score, Oregon 46, Pacific, 0.

From this time on, every man who has been out in a suit this fall was given an opportunity to play. The ninth touchdown was made by Walker, and Harvey Huston kicked the goal. Score, Oregon, 52; Pacific, 0.

DIED

Mrs. Emma J. Burgess, the mother of Miss Julia Burgess of the English department of the University, died suddenly early Sunday morning of heart failure. Mrs. Burgess was 77 years of age and had been unusually well for the past few months. There was no premonition of sickness until a few moments before her death. Miss Burgess took the Sunday afternoon train for Silver Creek, near Buffalo, New York where her mother will be buried beside the grave of her father. A brother will meet her at Chicago. Miss Burgess hopes to return to her work in about a month. Her students and members of the University expressed their sympathy in many ways, as she started on her sad lonely journey.

Fred Moullen refereed Saturday's game between the Oregon Agricultural College and the Astoria Athletic club.

The Oregon Monthly will be out about November 1.

Students should not forget the merchants who advertise in the Weekly.

CLUBS ENDORSE UNIVERSITY

Continuing his remarks President Campbell showed that at present the state of Oregon is giving less money to her state university than any state in the Union. He showed that the attendance nevertheless, has nearly doubled in the past four years and that effective work has been done notwithstanding the fact that the institution has been hampered by a lack of funds.

"The movement against the University is not charged to the state grange," he said. "Although it had its rise with some of the members, it is true that the state grange and the majority of the local granges are friendly to it. The grange, as an organization has always stood for education and will continue to stand for it in this matter of the University appropriation. The plain people everywhere see that the Uni-

Philologists.

The Philologists held their regular meeting Saturday night in Philologist Hall. The meeting was called at 7 P. M. with a good attendance.

The program for the evening was as follows:

Current Events Grout
 Declamation Kilpatrick
 Debate:

Resolved, That Oregon should repeal the present referendum law.

Affirmative, Strong, Travillion, McCarty.

Negative, Stoddard, Scott, Lowell.

The various numbers on the program were well received. Kilpatrick's declamation from Cicero in the original Latin received instant and resonant approbation.

Succeeding the regular debate a discussion was in order. This was replete with wise suggestions from the Y. W. C. A. Reception.

At the residence of Mrs. Young on Ninth street the Advisory Board and the members of the Y. W. C. A. gave an informal reception Tuesday evening to the girls of the University. The house was most artistically decorated in sweet-briar. Mrs. Young was assisted in receiving by the ladies of the Advisory Board. Miss Isolene Schaver presided at the tea table, and was assisted by Miss Jessie Chase, Miss Frances Young and Miss Jessie Bell. Miss Ross, of Los Angeles, assistant secretary of the Y. W. C. A. was present and gave a short talk on the "Interests of College Girls." A great many of the University girls enjoyed the kind hospitality of the Y. W. C. A.
