Dormitory Club.

This year the U. of O. Dormitory Club is in a most flourishing condition. Its membership has reached the maximum of seventy-five young men. All the classes are well represented in it, the Sophomores and Freshmen being in the majority and the latter outnumbering the former. All have gotten settled for the year's work and seem well pleased with their quarters.

Their home, the "Dorm." is crowded to its limits by incoming students, though it was enlarged during the past summer, by the fitting up of the rooms formerly used for the Library. However, true to the old saying, "the more the merrier," the old "Dorm." is the scene of many activities as the busy opening days rush by. Here student life is exemplified in all of its varied phases from the most serious study to the lightest diversion.

The officers of the Club elected for the ensuing year are, President, Ward Ray, '08, of Pittsburg, Pa.; Committeemen, Harvard Moore, '08, and Earl Kilpatrick, '09, for the third floor, and Donald Lewis, '09 and Benj. Huntington, '08, for the second floor. Affairs are moving off smoothly under the able direction of President Ray and his committee.

Pat McArthur was visiting old Varsity friends this week. Pat officiated as head lines-man at the Pacific-Oregon game Saturday.

Mrs. Nelson, of Albany, was visiting her son Robyn and daughter, Frances, on Sunday.

Basket Ball Prospects

The prospects for a good basket-ball team at the University this year are better than for a good many years. All but one of last year's team are back and there are a number of very promising freshmen players. Among the old men are Captain Dick Hathaway, Ramp, Charman, Moore, Strong, Nelson and Stevenson, while LeMasters, a sophomore, Farrington, of Eugene High School, and Hildeburn, of Roseburg High School, are new men who will materially strengthen the team. They will be coached by Physical Trainer Hayward.

Manager Nelson has not yet arranged his schedule, but promises some very interesting games here in Eugene to be played with different Oregon colleges. Besides these, he hopes to make a northern trip of about ten days playing such teams as Portland Y. M. C. A., Multnomah Club, University of Washington and Seattle High School.

Eutaxian.

At the next meeting of the Eutaxian society Mrs. Harris, '91, one of the alumnae members of the society will come up and give a Parliamentary Drill. Mrs. Harris is one of the leading club women of Eugene and is greatly interested in the University. All girls interested in parliamentary law are invited to be at the meeting next Friday. The programme at the last meeting was very good, consisting of current events by Irene Lincoln; an original story by Jennie Lilly; and Book Review by Ruby Pratt.
