THE ENGINEERING CLUB

The Engineering Club, like the rest of the University, has been inactive for the past two weeks. And, like the other student activities, will again take up its work this week.

Friday evening, in Dr. Boynton's lecture room, the members of the club will hold a regular meeting. The program will be all the more interesting for the two weeks vacation. The club's best performer, Dr. Leonard, will give another of his interesting and instructive talks. C. R. Reid will give an address on the use of the electro magnet for lifting heavy weights of metal. There will be other talks along lines of interest to all those interested in engineering subjects.

Mr. Elton and Mr. Reid have promised that the program will be worth attending. All those interested are cordially invited to attend.

Miss Theresa Friendly threw open her lovely home for an informal reception to the Stanford boys Thursday, Dec. 26th, and a jolly afternoon was spent by everyone. The invited guests were: The Misses Jessie Bacon, Sue Hayes, Ruth Duniway, Rae Vogel, Pearl Hawthorne, Adah Allen, Edna Zimmermann, Eva Allen, Winnie Cockerline, Winnie Hadley, Helene Robinson, Myrtle and Leone Kays, Messrs. George Hug, Bob Oberteuffer, Wm. Kits, Gordon Moores, Elmer Paine, Thos. Burke, R. Robinson, Grover Kestly and the Stanford Glee and Mandolin clubs.

Quite a number of students remained at college during the Xmas vacation. Will Kilts, Glenn Scott and Gordon Moores at the Kappa Sigma House. Harry Hildeburn, Robt. Oberteuffer, Grover and John Kestly at the Delta Alpha; Edna Zimmermann, Sue Hayes, Rae Vogel and Jessie Bacon at the Beta Epsilon, and Pearl Wilbur and Ruth Duniway at the Tan Pi House. There were about eighteen students left at the Dormitory.

Dick Charman, '10, spent the Christmas holidays in Chica, California.

The December issue of the University of Oregon Monthly was the best issue which has appeared this year. The editors of the publication are to be congratulated.
