

Forensic Preliminaries.

The oratorical and debate preliminaries will both be held this week, the oratorical preliminary coming on Friday afternoon and the debate preliminary coming on Saturday afternoon. At the former eight orators will complete, from which six will be selected to compete in a final contest on January 31. The winner of the final contest will represent the University at the State Intercollegiate contest which will be held at Monmouth under the auspices of the O. S. N. S. in March. At the debate preliminary eight men will be selected who will compete in a final contest in Villard Hall on Friday evening, January 24. At the latter time the six men who will represent the University in the Interstate Debating League will be chosen. There has been considerable interest shown in debating circles this season and two good teams should be selected.

Old Jokes.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead,

Who never to himself has said
As he stubbed his toe against the bed
— — — —* !!-! ???? !!-!—Ex.

Last night I stole a kiss,
Today my conscience hurts me some,
I guess I'll call around tonight,
And put it where I got it from.—Ex.

Why does a hen cross the road?
Answer: To borrow the rooster's comb.

"Success Magazine" Nuggets

Men of mettle turn disappointments into helps as the oyster turns into pearl the sand which annoys it.

Let a man get the idea that he is being wronged, or that everything is against him, and you cut his earning capacity in two.

The power of a clean record as a success factor can not be over-estimated.

Confidence is the key that unlocks the bank to the young man who is trying to establish himself.

To fear or to worry is as sinful as to curse.

They who give nothing till they die, never give at all.

If one good chance goes by you, just lie low and grab the next.

One's personal enjoyment is a very small thing; one's personal usefulness is a very important thing.

The members of the St. Louis University football team, which was heralded as a champion aggregation, are the latest candidates from the East to become acquainted with the merits of Western brawn. Washington State College trounced them 11 to 0 and M. A. A. C. trailed their colors in a 11 to 6 game. We doubt not that remembrances of those games are stamped visibly and indelibly upon them. They came from Missouri and were shown.

Manager Bean has announced that the inter-class indoor tournament will take place in the Armory on March 6.
