The Next Game.

The athletic event of the coming week will be the basketball game between the Oregon team and Ashland Athletic Club on Thursday night. The Ashland team is the champion of southern Oregon, and it will be remembered that the University team defeated it while on the southern trip by the score of 28 to 15. While this score would lead naturally to the belief that Oregon's players are much superior to the southerners, it is far from the case. The score at the end of the first half was 10 to 9, and it was only by superior endurance that the Varsity won. Manager Fuson, of the A. A. C., writes that he has strengthened his team and will come in the full expectation of retrieving their honor. Oregon's game with O. A. C. Saturday showed the weak points to Coach Murphy and he will immediately strengthen them. The Ashland boys will arrive in town Wednesday and will play the Eugene High School that night.

Sheridan's Story.

General Phil. Sheridan when asked what was the funniest thing which ever happened to him told the following story:

"One time," he said, "I was walking out among some of my cavalry men and I noticed an Irishman who was having a great difficulty in keeping astride of a bucking mule. Soon after I arrived on the scene the mule got his foot caught in the stirrup and Pat shrieked at him, 'Begorra, if you're going to get on, I'm going to get off.'"

Mr. Kenneth Fenton of Portland, visited the last of the week at the Kappa Sigma house. Mr. Fenton is a student at Stanford University and is one of the stars on the baseball and football teams of the California University.
