DEFEAT ASHLAND ATHLETES

University of Oregon Basket Ball Men
Defeat Ashland by the Score of 41 to 8

The final score of last Thursday's game clearly shows the superiority of the University of Oregon team over the five representing the Ashland Athletic Club. This superiority was not demonstrated until the second half, for at the end of the first twenty minutes of play Ashland was only one point behind.

First Half

In preliminary practice the Ashland team was accurate but slow. The Oregon team was much faster but fumbled the ball frequently. These characteristics were evident throughout the first half. On the first toss, Stevenson got the ball from Spencer, the Ashland center, and a moment later made the first score of the game. Ashland soon ran up its score to 7. Oregon missed a great many chances, but toward the end of the half, Captain Hathaway got the range, and threw three baskets in rapid succession.

Ashland 7—Oregon 8.

Second Half

The Oregon men soon had things their own way. Then fumbling ceased and their speed was too great for Ashland. Hathaway, Van Scoy and Charman started the scoring by throwing field goals. Moore scored on a foul, and then from the field. Ashland continued a desperate defense, but the Varsity men rolled up their score at will. Van Scoy made the spectacular throw of the evening. In the second half goals were made as follows: Hathaway, 5; Van Scoy, 5; Moore, 3; Charman, Strong and Loosley one each. Moore threw one foul. Ashland scored one point in this half, throwing a foul just as the whistle blew.
