Basketball News.

The basketball team is away on its vacation trip. The games scheduled for the trip are with Chemawa, two with University of Idaho, at Moscow, with W. S. C. at Pullman, with Whitman College at Walla Walla, with Pendleton High School, and with M. A. A. C. at Portland.

Last Saturday evening, the game with the Chemawa Indians, resulted in a victory for Oregon, by a score of 22 to 9. The game lacked in scientific accuracy, but made it all up in enthusiasm, which often bordered upon roughness. Charman was the star. The Indians are no mean antagonists and this decisive victory is encouraging. Coach Murphy took the following men on the trip:

Forwards, Van Scoy, Moore and Watson; center, Loosley; guards, Farrington, Strong and Charman. Captain Hathaway did not make the trip as the press of examinations prevented him from practicing regularly.

Oliver Needham, '10, is unwell.
