The Laurean society held no meeting last week.

Miss Jessie Chase, a senior in the University, received word last Friday that her father, W. B. Chase, of Portland, was stricken with paralysis, while on a business trip at McMinnville. Miss Chase left immediately for McMinnville as her father is in a very serious condition.

The subscription price of the Oregon Weekly for the remainder of the year will be 50 cents. See Walter Eaton or Arthur Van Dusen about it.

SIMPLE DIVISION

One half of one dollar is fifty cents. One semester is one half of the college year. This means that for the small sum of fifty cents, the Oregon Weekly can be mailed for the rest of the college year to any office within the Postal union. Students, Freshmen, Alumni and Flunkers, come through.

Lord God of Hosts be with us yet,
 Lest we forget, lest we forget.
 (After exams)

Lord God of Hosts was with us not,
 For we forgot, for we forgot.—Argonaut.

The following men will represent Idaho in the Triangular League Contests with Oregon and Washington: Robert O. Jones, Guy Holman, Bruce D. Mudgett, Fred E. Luckens, Jewett D. Matthews, and Willard K. Gwin. They will not be divided into two teams for some time to come. Jones will lead one team and Holman will lead the other. The judges in the trial debate were Professor; Axtell, Peters and Hulme—Idaho Argonaut.
