EUGENE, OREGON

A great many of the students attended the excellent production of "Antony and Cleopatra" at the Eugene Theatre Friday evening, by Chas. B. Hanford company.

The ladies of the Advisory Board of the Y. W. C. A. give a series of informal teas every second and fourth Saturdays to the members of the Y. W. C. A. About ten members are invited to each tea. Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. DeCou and Mrs. Young entertained at the home of Mrs. Young on Ninth Streets. The guests brought their needlework and a most pleasant afternoon was spent.

Prof. DeCou and Carl McClain will be the speakers at the Engineers' Club next Friday night. Mr. McClain will talk on the subject of "French Excavation." Prof. DeCou's subject will be announced later by a bulletin. Every one interested in engineering subjects is cordially invited to attend. The time is 8 o'clock and the place Dr. Boynton's lecture room.

Philologian Society.

For the third quarterly election of officers, the Philologian society assembled on Saturday night, and held the most successful meeting of the year. It was especially important, as the tryout for the freshman society team was also held. Twenty members responded to the call.

The interest centered in the debate, which was handled by Hoisington, Beattie, Robinson, Dean, Marshall, Eaton, Johnson and Drew.

Though all made able speeches, the judges found it necessary to select only the three best who were: Hoisington, Beattie and Robinson, with Dean as alternate. This team will meet a similar team from the Laurean society in a public debate. The question will be decided later and all who are interested should watch for the great contest in the near future.

The officers for the coming quarter are, president, Curtis Gardner; vice-president, Earl F. Strong; secretary Henry Marshall; treasurer, Homer Briedwell, assistant treasurer, John Morgan, S. A., Clyde Dean; editor, Alfred Powers; censor, Earl F. Kilpatrick
