effective methods of presentation; the laborer will find a clearer understanding of a question with which he is vitally concerned; the ordinary citizen will get in a brief compass the history and discussion of a complex, yet interesting problem. Students should come to the debate as much as a matter of course as they attend a track meet; others will find there something far more profitable.

Engineers, Attention.

A. W. Jackson and Prof. Terrill will be the speakers at Engineers' Club next Friday night. The subjects of the addresses have not been announced but they will be profitable and on topics with which the speakers are thoroughly familiar.

Wistar Johnson has decided to enter the competition for Rhodes scholarship from Oregon this year. Last year he was unsuccessful, as the lot fell upon the Willamette candidate, who so the judges decided, showed more evidence of active work in student-body affairs. Mr. Johnson is at present a student at Boston School of Technology. He is expected to make a strong bid for the place to which he aspires.

Bishop Scadding, according to latest information, will receive the invitation to deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the class of 1908.

The members of the first football squad for 1907 received from Manager Kestley their sweaters with the hard won letter.

The seniors have secured their class pins. The design is a block "O" with the numerals "08" running diagonally across it.

Miss Ruth Duniway, '10, is again attending classes after a brief vacation enforced by a badly sprained ankle.

The green and white caps of the sophomores vary wonderfully the monotony of the campus.

Bess Gallogly, '09, who has been ill with diphtheria, is once more attending classes.
