RHODES SCHOLAR SELECTED

Wistar Johnson, '06, Now Attending Boston "Tech.", will be Oregon's Representative at Oxford.

Wistar Johnson has been selected by the faculty of the University to receive the third Rhodes scholarship to Oxford from Oregon. He passed the examination successfully last year along with three other candidates but was defeated in the final selection by Mr. Winans of Willamette University. At the Spring commencement he was graduated, since when he has been attending the Boston Technical School, taking a course in mining engineering. As he was still eligible, the faculty committee of the University, in that he was their choice last year, extended to him their support this year, and a letter has been received from him accepting the appointment and stating that he will be in Eugene about July 1 to make final preparations for his departure.

Wistar is the youngest son of Professor Johnson, first president of the University of Oregon, and during his college career here, he maintained a high average in scholarship besides being a very prominent athlete. His many friends here are more than pleased with his good fortune and are confident that he will be a creditable representative of his state and college.
