COLLEGE HOUR WEDNESDAY

Freshman was supplied with a "liberty pole" whereon to ingurgitate the class groups broke up and everyone proceeded to "make merry" on the green sward. Childhood games were revived and the scene presented was as of a modern dance of the nymphs. One little incident furnished five minutes of lively excitement. The embers of class enmity between the Freshies and Sophs broke out in a sudden burst of flame, when some bold spirit espied a pile of fresh-cut grass. This made excellent confetti, and the air was soon green with the flying grass. But the supply was limited, and the melee subsided as suddenly as it began. The girls hereupon, formed a long serpentine, and escorted by a parallel line of boys, they marched in triumphal procession about the campus, dispersing at the 11 o'clock gong to their different classes.

The committee which arranged the details of the hour's entertainment is composed of Bert Prescott, LeRoy Wood, Don L. Lewis, Isolene Shaver, Mozelle Hair, Agnes Stevenson, Grover Kestley, Earl Kilpatrick, Francis Obterteuffer, Ruth Hansen, Mary DeBar, Wm. Wood, Arthur Van Dusen, Cora Cameron, Carloyn Dunston, and Sam May.

Everyone is now hoping that the College Hour, as ushered in Wednesday will be a permanent addition to the observances of the University of Oregon.

Mrs. W. C. Noon of Portland is visiting her son William.

Miss Blanche Huston who has been visiting at her home in Portland returned Saturday evening.

Professor and Mrs. Dunn Stafford will leave in a few weeks for an extended visit in the East and Europe. In Germany Professor Stafford will do some research work. They expect to be gone about a year.
