Snow Wins Singles

To brim the cup of oratorical and athletic victory, Chas. MacC. Snow, '09, won for Oregon the singles championship in the intercollegiate tennis tournament at Seattle on Saturday morning. This is the first year that Oregon has been represented in intercollegiate tennis. Snow is a member of the Mucker's Club and has acquired much of his skill in practice on the University court. Snow and Eastham were entered for the doubles but lost them to Davis and Galbraith of W. S. C. It is probable that tennis representatives will be sent annually hereafter to the Seattle tournament.

David Campbell of Monmouth, brother of Pres. Campbell, is a splendid musician and will make a name for himself in musical circles. He is only seventeen years old, but his technique and expression are extremely well developed. He has a light, easy touch and a good appearance. Mr. Campbell won a musical scholarship this year and will go to Washington next year to continue his work. He played in Assembly this week to a delighted audience.

Miss Erma Clifford, of Baker City, is spending the week in Eugene, the guest of the Tau Pi Sorority.
