

VOCAL PUPILS PRESENTED

By Mrs. Katherine Ward Pope in Recital in Villard Hall Thursday Evening

The Song Recital of the University School of Music in which Mrs. Katherine Ward Pope presented a number of her pupils, was listened to by a large and appreciative audience in Villard Hall, Thursday evening, June 4th.

The following programme was unusually well rendered.

The Florence WaltzLeibling
Jessie Fariss

- a. Autumn Song Mrs. Beach
- b. My Shadow Henry Hadley
(From a Child's Garden of Verses by Robert Louis Stevenson.)
Georgine Ranson.

- a. Leita Signor (from Les Huguenots) Meyerbeer
- b. Obstinatation Fentenailles
Hazel Huff
- a. Aus Meinen Grossen Schmerzen Franz
- b. Rose in the Bud Foryster
- c. You loved the Time of Violets Lohr
Louise Yoran
- a. Beloved it is Morn Florence Aylward
- b. Im Kahne Grieg
Cora Wold
- a. Lungi dal Caro Bene Secchi
(Two songs by Gena Branscombe.)
- b. With Rue My Heart Is Laden.
- c. The Tender Sweetness.
Edna Zimmerman
- a. Ein Schwann Greig
- b. With a Violet Greig

INTERCOLLEGIATE PICKUPS

Gathered From the Columns of Our Exchanges and Condensed for Our Readers

The University of Washington has granted a gold "W" to every representative in debate and oratory for the past year.

Only three girls were dropped from Stanford during the recent unpleasantness.

T. E. Latimer, who led the Washington debate team against Oregon this spring, has received a $250 scholarship in the University of Illinois.

In an annual mud fight at Cornell, 286 freshmen were artistically decorated by the sophomores.

JOHNSON HALL, THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

- Fruelingsglaube Franz Schubert
Isolene Shaver
- The Danza Chadwick
Pearl Wilbur
- Still wie die Nacht Carl Bohn
Edith Prescott
- Two songs by Landon Ronald.
- a. Away on the Hill.
- b. The Dove.
Louise Renshaw
- Morgen-Hymme Henschel
Oliver Bardwell Needham
- a. Il Neige Bemberg
- b. Under the Rose Fisher
Irene Simington
- Spring Leo Stern
Una Neal
- Requiem Sidney Homer
Ralph Dodson

- c. I Think D'Hardelot
Lila Prosser

Students of the agricultural and mechanical college of Texas recently refused to attend classes until their president should be removed. It is generally believed that the president will acquiesce to the demand that he resign.

The Stadium at the University of Syracuse, recently completed, gives that institution the largest playhouse in America. It has a seating capacity of 40,000.

The O. A. C. Barometer recently printed a short local on a student who while practicing an athletic feat cut a gash in his head.

Yale University will next year support two daily papers.

A new chemistry building at Michigan will cost $275,000.

Whitman college is to add an engineering department. A large endowment will help to make that college the equal of any in the Northwest.

Prohibition has been strongly endorsed by the students at Nebraska University.

The police had to be called in to quell a disturbance at the freshman dinner between the freshmen and sophomores at Pennsylvania. Several students were taken to the hospital to recover.

Memorial church, the famous Stanford chapel, which was destroyed by the San Francisco earthquake, is to be restored, according to a recent statement of the board of trustees.