Mary Spiller House.

The Mary Spiller House, the new dormitory for girls, which was finished last year, but could not be furnished for want of funds held up by the referendum, was opened with the beginning of the present semester. There are accommodations for sixteen young ladies, and it is expected that all rooms will be full before the end of the week. Mrs. A. Ella S. Stearns, the matron of the new dormitory, is well known by reputation in Eugene, although she has never lived here before. She has been prominently and effectively identified with women's club and charity work. For five years past she has been in charge of the Children's Home in South Portland. She is enthusiastic over her new work, and plans to make the Mary Spiller House a comfortable home for a large family of girls. The house is handsomely furnished and thoroughly equipped. The girls at present in the house are Misses Mae Barzee, Mabel Hill, Elsie Dow, Vera Herren, Mabel Lane, Blanche Ferdeen, Ruby Hammerstrom, Sara Riddle, Grace Tomlison, Annie Lyster, Hattie Hyde and Livia Bond.

Y. W. C. A. Conference.

The Oregon delegates to the Y. W. C. A. Conference at Seaside last spring report a most enjoyable and profitable time. There were eleven of them, the largest college delegation present. The Oregon delegation took a prominent part in the conference work. They were also hostesses at the reception to the delegations. An article descriptive of the conference will appear in the first issue of the Oregon Monthly. It is from the pen of Ruth E. Balderee, '10, president of the local association.

Tennis.

Earl F. Strong, Manager of tennis, will soon see to the construction of new courts on the old base-ball grounds west of Johnson Hall. The base-ball grounds will be transferred to University Avenue. The ground near the Dormitory formerly occupied by the tennis courts has been plowed and will be put to lawn. It is hoped to have keen competition in tennis this year, in order that the University may equal or better the excellent showing of last spring, when C. McC. Snow won the singles championship of the college Northwest at Seattle.
