Took Trip East.

Bill Hayward, Oregon's popular trainer, has but recently returned from a trip to the prominent cities of the East. While East he gathered ideas for the equipment of a new gymnasium. Everywhere he was hailed as a successful and deservedly famous trainer. As a result of his trip, he will introduce few new training methods, as in this line Oregon is already abreast of the foremost. New appliances and apparatus, however, will doubtless be installed in the near future.

Two marriages of Oregon alumni that occurred during the summer were those of Ralph R. Poppleton, '06, and Miss Irene Lincoln, '08, and of Carl A. McClain, '06, and Miss Grace Parker, '07.

Bert W. Prescott, '08, is acting as private secretary to President Campbell.

Ray Walsh, ex-'10, has reentered college as a Sophomore.

Weekly subs are payable to Dean T. Goodman or Fritz Dean.

Herbert Angell, '11, is attending Boston Tech.

A meeting of the sophomore class has been called for Wednesday afternoon.

Samuel G. Cosgrove, recently nominated by the Republican party as candidate for governor of Washington, is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University.

Constance Covell and Mary Howard, '11, will not return to college this year.

Bob Oberteuffer, '09, will not be in college this year.

Miss Cora Cameron, '08, was married during the summer to Mr. James A. Laurie of Portland.

Francis V. Galloway, '07, and Virgil D. Earl, '06, will teach in East Portland High School.

A revised bulletin of the correspondence courses offered by the University will be published this week.

Jack Latourette, '07, is coaching the football team of Hill's Military Academy. John Veatch, '07, and Glenn Scott, ex-'10, are teachers of English at the same institution.

C. B. Hamble, '08, is employed in a Eugene real estate office.

Verner Gilles, ex-'10, has registered as a sophomore.

The Y. W. C. A. entertained the freshmen girls, Saturday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. DeCou.

Benj. Huntington and Emily Muhr, of last year's class, are teachers in Eugene High School.
