Philologists Elect

Officers for the first term of the school year were elected by the Philologist Society at its regular meeting Saturday evening. Those who will hold office are: Earl Strong, president; Horton Nicholas, vice-president; L. B. Hoisington, secretary; Alfred Powers, assistant secretary; Ferdinand Struck, treasurer; Ellsworth Morgan, editor; Carl Neal, sergeant-at-arms.

In addition to the election there was a short program. Struck, Briedwell and Hoisington gave extemporaneous speeches. The debate was on the subject of the bank question plank in the Democratic platform. Nicholas and Struck who spoke in favor of the question were victorious over Marshall and Richardson who upheld the negative.

BOOSTER ASSEMBLY SUCCESS

You are bound to be sophomores and juniors and some of you may be seniors. Hard work now will pay."

Manager McEwen, Captain Moullen, Trainer Hayward and Coach Forbes discussed foot-ball, the all-important subject at present.

Manager McEwen said: "There is promise of a winning team. Coach Forbes is one of the greatest coaches in the United States and with his help we must win back our laurels lost to O. A. C."

Captain Moullen encouraged the students to organize for rooting and to take 2000 people to Portland. "Keep Nov. 21 in mind," is the watchword he gave the members of the student-body.

Trainer Hayward said: "Our prospect for winning teams are good but the players need your encouragement. Get out and root. Get some new yells and learn to give them."

Coach Forbes thinks the University has good chances to win. "But," he remarked, "we must not be over-confident. Let everyone do his best."

Arthur Van Dusen, retiring yell-leader, after making a few farewell remarks, led in giving some of Oregon's yells, and the students filed out to the inspiring strains of "Boola."

Altogether the Assembly was a most successful one and one evident result was a grandstand full of rooters at football practice on Wednesday evening.

Remember Nov. 21. Oregon vs. O. A. C. at Portland. *
