Social Doings

Perhaps the most interesting and elaborate social affair of last week was the dinner given by the senior members of the Beta Epsilon Sorority to President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell on Thursday evening. The guests present were: President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Professor and Mrs. Glen, Professor and Mrs. Sweetser, Professor and Mrs. Dearborn, Professor Carson, and Professor Bovard. The charming hostesses were the Misses Fullerton, Nelson, Goff, Hayes, Mackenzie and Cockerline.

The Eutaxian Society had a social gathering at the Tau Pi Sorority house on Saturday evening, the purpose of the entertainment being to interest the freshmen and new members in the work of the society. The girls opened the evening with a short program, after which they enjoyed themselves with music and games. It was in every way successful.

Another pleasant affair was that given in honor of Walter Eaton by Miss Lida Garrett. Mr. Eaton is spending a week in Eugene before he again takes up his work in the Bohemia district and his old friends among the students are trying to make the most of his presence among them. Those present were the Misses Alice Stoddard, Fay Clark, Vera Sanderson, Helen Kenny, Madge Hamble, Daryl Belat, Celia, Hager, Hallie Sterner, Grace Stearns, Ersa Hamble, Daryl Laurel Inman; and Messrs. Stoddard, Hamble, Goodall, Snodgrass, Kilpatrick, Billie Williams, Ben Williams, McCrady and Walter Eaton.

Lloyd O. Mayer, ex-'11, has entered Yale University. He writes that he is well pleased with life there.

Harry Moon, the premier sprinter of class 1911, is attending classes again after an absence caused by the death of his father.

H. K. Shirk, '08, has been visiting in the city. He is a teacher in the Eastern Oregon State Normal at Weston.

Olive Donnell, '11, has returned to college.

Isolene Shaver, '10, returned to college Thursday.

Mis Grace Magladry, who has recently been ill, has recovered and is again in college.
