Beebe Talks on Love

Cornelius Beebe amused the Lauean Society on Saturday evening with a short address on the subject of Love on the Campus. Mr. Beebe has given the matter much thoughtful consideration and is well qualified to discuss it. Impromptu speeches were made by C. K. Lyons on the political outlook and Arthur Geary on the football game. The question, Resolved, That a lawyer is justified in supporting a client when he knows the accused is guilty, was debated. Gammons and Collier spoke for the affirmative while Johns and Barbour upheld the negative. The decision was given for the affirmative.

Philos Have Campaign Fever

Political questions are live topics for discussion among the Philologists. Saturday night the injunction planks in the party platforms were discussed. Winn Nicholas and Earl Marshall supported the Democratic plank but were successfully opposed by Dunlap and Geisler.

The question was then thrown open to the house and further debated.

A recitation by Horton Nicholas was appreciated. The new members are now taking part in the debates and are doing good work. The applications for membership of Dobie, Shattuch, and Schantin will be acted upon at next meeting.

Charles Erskine was in Eugene for a short time last Thursday but returned to Coburg to attend his father, who was seriously injured some time ago.
